Webb-Cook Wedding Solemnized Sept. 5th

Stockton, the colonial home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvie Roscoe Cook near Woodville, was the scene of the wedding of their daughter, Peggy Do-lores, to John Horace Webb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Thomas Webb of Durants Neck on Sunday afternoon, September 5, at 4 o'clock.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. W. Singletary in the yard under an archway arranged before a background of pine and aisle baskets of white gladioli and asters, fern and huckleberry.

From the open doorway strains of the wedding music could be heard as played by Miss Carolyn Neece of Elizabeth City. Miss Ethel Frances Elliott of Hertford, standing in the

A one acre plot was measured off and Mr. Jones marked the trees which should be removed to thin the stand of timber to the proper number of trees for best results. The trees will be thinned later this fall and the wood A forestry field day is being planned at which time the public will be invited to observe the results. Forestry specialists will be on hand to explain the various phases of farm forestry. A visit to the fence post and timber creosoting plant located in Perquimans County will be included in the plans for the field day.

THIS WEEK'S

Recommendations will be made to the next Congress, which convenes in January, for some drastic changes to be made in the administrative branch this week by former President Herbert Hoover, speaking before the National Press Club in Washington. Among the recommendations expected to be made by the committee working on the problems, is for the en-largement of the President's cabinet. Mr. Hoover told the Press Club members that our government has grown so large that it is now almost impossible for the President to handle all the detail work and increasing the size of the cabinet and detailing more authority to cabinet members will correct some of these conditions. Anguilty to a charge of fishing without other recommendation expected to be made is the cutting down of the number of lending agencies now operated

435 Registered By Local Board Up to Wednesday Noon; Questionnaires Next

Men, 18 through 25 years of age, must comply with the selective service law and register with their local Draft Board before 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon, it was pointed out today by Mrs. Ruth Sumner, clerk of the Perquimans Board, who stated that today and Saturday will be the final days for the special registration which started the latter part of August. Youths 18 and 19 are scheduled to register today and tomorrow. Other men eligible for selective service and who have not as yet registered, must also appear before the Board during these two days.

Beginning next Monday, Mrs. Sum-ner said, the local Board will open its offices in the building over the bus station in Hertford and all selective service operations will be carried on at this new location. Youths who reach their 18th birthday after tomorrow are required to report to the local Board office and register within five days of their birthday.

Judging from the number of registrants signed up at noon Wednesday, the county will fail to come up to State expectations on the number of men to register in this county. A total of 435 registrants had appeared before the Board up to Wednesday of this week. State Selective Service headquarters had estimated that a total of 784 would be registered here. The clerk of the local Board estimated that approximately 600 may be registered by tomorrow night, inasmuch as a large number of 18 and 19 year olds are expected to register today and Saturday.

Anticipating the first draft call for some time in November, the local Board will begin next week to mail out questionnaires to the men who have registered. The questionnaire will be mailed out according to age groups. Those registrants of 25 will be the first to receive the forms and each registrant will have ten days in which to fill out the forms and return them to the local Board.

Of the number of men already registered by the local Board, Mrs. Sumner estimates, about one-third of the men are veterans and are unlikely to be called for service under the new
