Candidates for President

HARRY TRUMAN (Democrat)

- Urged Congress to enact Federal laws to force Southern states to eliminate all segregation in hotels, restaurants and schools, in offices and factories, and on busses and trains.
- Advocates repeal of Taft-Hartley Labor Law.

TOM DEWEY (Republican)

- Placed upon New York State an anti-segregation law worse than that which Harry Truman advocates.
- Took the lead in opposing Southern governors when they sought to remove the discrimination in freight rates which gives an unfair advantage to Northern shippers.

HENRY WALLACE (Progressive)

- Favors forcing the South to eliminate all segregation laws.
- A friend of Russia and the Communists.

STROM THURMOND—

(STATES' RIGHTS DEMOCRAT)

- Stands for the segregation of the races and the racial integrity of each race; the constitutional right to choose one's associates; to accept private employment without governmental interference, and to earn one's living in any lawful way.
- Resents the manner in which Southern delegates to the Philadelphia Convention were reviled and insulted.
- Seeks to regain for the Democrats of the South a voice in political affairs which has been lost through the catering of Northern Democrats to minority groups. Feels that the South should never again permit itself to be regarded as "IN THE BAG."

STATES' RIGHTS DEMOCRATIC PARTY.
