BRIDAL RECEPTION

Immediately following the Stephenson-Felton wedding last Saturday, the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Felton entertained at a reception at their home.
 Receiving at the door were Miss Dorothy Howard and Mrs. D. F. Reen who introduced the guests to the receiving line. Mixed flowers and candles were used throughout the lower floor. The dining room was decorated with white gladioli, asters and candles in silver candelabra. The table was covered with an imported linen cloth and the cake was served by Mrs. Henry Clay Stokes. Miss Janet Murray, Miss Eva Harris and Mrs. Henry Stokes assisted in serving ice cream, nuts and mints.
 Mrs. Edgar Fields registered the guests in the gift room and goodbyes were said by Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Howard and Mrs. C. H. Howard.
 Miss Ruth Tucker and Mrs. Jim Winteringer entertained the wedding party and out of town guests at a supper the night of rerearsal.
 The house was beautifully decorated with mixed asters and white candles in the living room and dining room in white asters and candelabar with white candles.
 Saturday morning Mrs. Henry Stokes and Mrs. T. L. Jessup entertained at a wedding breakfast at the home of Mrs. Julian White at 12:30 p. m. The decorations were mixed flowers and candles in silver holders.

BIBLE CLASS MEETS

The Young Woman's Bible Class meets Tuesday night at the church at 8 o'clock. The president, Mrs. J. D. Swindell urges all members be present.

HONORED AT SHOWER

Miss Madge Lane, bride-elect, was honored at a miscellaneous shower recently by Misses Marie Rountree and Ruby Lane at the home of Miss Lane. The entire lower floor was beautifully decorated with cut flowers. The hostesses presented the honoree with a lovely corsage of gardenias.
 Many interesting contests were enjoyed with Mrs. Louis Winslow and Mrs. Elwood Nowell winning prizes which they graciously presented to the honoree.
 After the many lovely and useful gifts were opened and acknowledged by Miss Lane the hostesses served ice cream, cookies, nuts and mints to approximately 60 guests present.
