FRIDAY, MAY 26, 1950

going to elect to national offices if elected.

A great deal of political wrangling has been going on in this country for years and it appears to us that the problem to be solved is one of whether the United States is to continue along the liberal line it has followed recently, or if individuals will cast their votes for placing a brake upon the idea, which seemingly is spreading, that the government owes each of us a living.

It is our opinion that people of other States will be much impressed by North Carolina's choice of U. S. Senators, to be nominated in tomorrow's primary, and the choice of the voters tomorrow may have much influence upon elections which are scheduled for other states later this year.

If the people of North Carolina desire to place a brake upon government spending, deficit financing, and the so-called Welfare-State program, then, in our opinion, they should vote for Willis Smith for the U. S. Senate because Smith's platform points out that he is opposed to these national programs and will vote against them

To our way of thinking the main issue in the Senatorial election tomorrow is whether we want the present trend of national government to be continued or if we want a voice in the Senate which will oppose this trend and help to promote a more conservative type of government from Washington.

Like all elections in North Carolina the decision rests with the people and it is for you to voice your desire by going to the polls tomorrow and casting your vote. Take time tomorrow to cast your vote.

HELEN GAITHER CLUB MEETS

The Helen Gaither Home Demonstration Club met May 18, at 8:00 P. M., at the Agricultural Building with Mrs. John Corprew, Jr., as hostess. The president, Mrs. W. P. Lane, called the meeting to order and "Hail, Club Women, Crowned Through Service," was sung. The collect was repeated.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved and the roll was called.

(Mrs. Nina White gave a short talk on Farm and Home Week. Demonstrations for next year were also discussed.)

Several book reports were given by the members.

Mrs. Alfred Lane gave a talk on "House Furnishings."

Mrs. Nina B. White gave an interesting demonstration on "Attractive Eating Corners."

Mrs. John Corprew, Jr., gave the recreation, a flower contest, with Mrs. T. E. Madre winning the prize.

The hostess served ice cream, cake and salted peanuts to those present.

"An elder statesman with character, ability and experience." A farmer and commercial fisherman who is familiar with the problems of sport, fishing and wildlife. He has taken a lead in legislation for preservation of our natural resources and all civic improvements. His four boys having each had hard service in World War II. He is, of course, interested in the welfare of our veterans.

His extensive acquaintance with members of the General Assembly gives him an influential position.

Steve Askew knows and understands the district and its people and seeks to promote its future development.

Let's look at his RECORD, and take advantage of the opportunity to send this friendly, able and courageous man to represent us in Raleigh.

No Reflection

The incident which occurred at Belvidere, in connection with a political rally last Wednesday a week ago, certainly casts no reflections upon the community or the great majority of the people therein. It is a pity that such action did happen but similar incidents have been recorded in other localities throughout the world, and it is a matter for courts to handle in judging persons responsible for starting such trouble.

To our way of thinking the community of Belvidere had no part in the incident other than being the scene of the disturbance and therefore carries no blemish against its name as a fine and outstanding community.

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER

I am a candidate for nomination and election to the office of County Commissioner from Hertford Township, subject to the Democratic Primary on May 27, 1950, and will be grateful for your support. If nominated and elected to the office, I will give the office my very best efforts.

Cast Your Vote

Tomorrow is election day in North Carolina.

It is an important day for every citizen eligible to vote because it offers the electorate the opportunity to cast their votes for candidates they desire to serve as public officers for the next two, four and six years.

Here in Perquimans County, political interest is greater than it has been for several years. We are glad to see this increased interest in elections and hope that it will be continued long after the current election is over and forgotten.

It is our belief that the election tomorrow is an important one. We believe that the eyes of the nation are focused upon North Carolina, and that the rest of the country is anxious to know who North Carolina is

U. S. SENATE VOTE SHOWS:

Graham Favors No Segregation In Washington, D. C. Schools

In 1949 the U. S. Senate was considering a bill known as "Home Rule for the District of Columbia," which would give Washington City Council the right to abolish existing segregation in their schools.

Senator Eastland of Mississippi proposed an amendment which would give the people of Washington a right to vote on whether they desired to abolish segregation in their schools.

This amendment was designed to give the people in Washington, D. C., the right to vote on segregation.

Every Southern Senator Voted For This Amendment

— EXCEPT —

GRAHAM, PEPPER AND KEFAUVER

Three weeks ago the people of Florida repudiated and defeated Pepper for renomination by an overwhelming majority.

Nineteen Southern Senators voted for this amendment, including SENATOR HOEY of North Carolina, BUT it was defeated by Graham-Pepper-Kefauver, who voted with Northern Republicans and Democrats. Thus,

Graham Denied People of Washington, D. C., the Very Same Rights as Are Guaranteed North Carolinians

Yet, he talks glibly about handling the race problem in the North Carolina Way.
