

George Wood Weds Martha Gullede

Miss Martha Ben Gullede, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Niven Gullede, of Raeford, and George Wilbur Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Elmer Wood, of Route three, Hertford, were married in the Raeford Baptist Church Sunday, May 21. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Judson Lennon, pastor of the bride.

The vows were spoken before a background of fern and ivy, interspersed with seven-branched candelabra holding lighted tapers. The center altar vase was filled with white snapdragons and matricaria with ivy trail-down, and tall baskets of hydrangea were placed at each end.

A program of wedding music was presented by J. J. Pence, organist, and Robert Gatlin, soloist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of organdy, fashioned with a berth of organdy and illusion. Her veil of illusion fell from a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a colonial bouquet centered with a white purple-throated orchid, tied with illusion and satin ribbon.

Miss Sarah Ann Gullede, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a dress of yellow organdy with matching mitts. Mrs. J. W. Floyd, aunt of the bride was matron of honor. Both carried colonial bouquets of mixed flowers and wore small bandeaus of mixed flowers.

John E. Wood, Jr., brother of the groom was best man. Ushers were Joe Davis, Joe Gullede, Jr., Edward and Robert MrGirt.

The mother of the bride wore a dress of rose silk with navy accessories and the mother of the groom wore a dress of old rose crepe and lace with navy accessories. Both wore an orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride. Following the reception the couple left for a short wedding trip and are making their home near Hertford.

Mrs. Wood attended East Carolina Teachers College. Mr. Wood, a graduate and former star athlete at Perquimans High School, received his degree at East Carolina Teachers College last month.

Attending the wedding from Hertford were Mr. and Mrs. John Elmer Wood, Mrs. Howard Matthews, Mrs. Mary Keaton, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wood, Jr., and children, Faye and Candice Ellen, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Matthews and Calvin Wilson.

er given at her home, Thursday evening, May 18, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Hurdle.

Several games and contests were enjoyed with Mrs. George Baker, Mrs. Odell Baccus, and Mrs. O. D. Ferrell winning prizes, which they graciously presented to the honoree.

The honorees received many lovely and useful gifts, which they opened and gratefully acknowledged.

The hostess, assisted by Misses Marjorie Ward, Emily Anne Sumner, Kathleen Hurdle and Mrs. Carl Lewis, served cup cakes, cookies, ice cream and salted peanuts to the 63 guests present.

HONORED AT LUNCHEON

Mrs. H. C. Stokes was a delightful hostess Tuesday at a luncheon given in honor of her sister, Miss Gladys Felton of St. Paul, who is her guest this week. Those present besides the guest of honor were Mesdames T. L. Jessup, C. T. Skinner, J. O. Felton, D. F. Reed, Misses Mildred Reed, Mary Sumner and Thelma Elliott.

CIRCLE MEETS

The Rosa Powell Circle met Tuesday night, June 6, at the home of Miss Marjorie Chesson.

The meeting opened by singing of a hymn. Devotional was given by Peggy Winslow, followed by prayer by Mrs. Dawson.

A very interesting program was given by Eva Harris, Doris White, and Elizabeth Ward.

Roll was called with 12 members present. Old and new business was discussed.

Members there sang Take The Name of Jesus With You, and closed with repeating the 14th verse of the 19th Psalm.

The hostess served delicious refreshments.

HOME DEMONSTRATION MEETS

The Burgess H.D.C. met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Walton Lane. The meeting opened by singing, "Hail Club Women, Crowned With Service." Mrs. Tommie Matthews gave the devotional from John 3: 30-36, followed by prayer and a beautiful thought for the day. Minutes were read and roll was called. Announcements were made concerning Farm and Home Week.

Mrs. Tommie Matthews was appointed to serve on the 1951 program committee. Clothing leader, Mrs. A. M. Copeland, reported on "What's New." Mrs. Walton Lane reported on two books. Mrs. Nina B. White gave an interesting demonstration on, "Attractive Eating Corners."

The meeting was closed with the Collect. Mrs. Lane conducted a corn contest with Mrs. H. S. Davenport winning the prize.

Those present were Mrs. C. S. Davenport, Mrs. Tommie Matthews, Mrs. Sidney Layden, Mrs. Josiah Proctor, Mrs. J. B. Bamight, Mrs. Walton Lane, Mrs. Howard Matthews, Mrs. A. M. Copeland and Mrs. Nina B. White.

Mrs. Josiah Proctor won the door prize. The hostess served nuts, candy, cake, and ice cream, topped with chocolate syrup.
