

Negro 4-H Teams In Event At Louisburg

The annual demonstration eliminations for Negro 4-H boys and girls team was held last Saturday at the Library and the results announced as follows: Boy's winner, Gaylord James and Preston James from Hertford 4-H Club; Girl's winner, Francine Mitchell and Jessie Lee Norman, from Winfall Club. The title of the boys demonstration was, How I Am Conducting My One Acre Soybean Demonstration, and the girls', The Use of Dry Skim Milk in the Home.

Both teams are attending a demonstration this week at Louisburg, where they are competing against other teams from counties in the Northeast District. The teams were accompanied to Louisburg by Mrs. M. B. Taylor, Negro Home Agent.

Shelvia White, Bay Branch 4-H member won first place in the dress revue and she is also taking part in the revue at Louisburg.

William Welch, a member of the Chinquapin Club, was selected to attend the State Wildlife Camp, at Cary, for the week of June 5 to 10th, and he was accompanied to this meeting by W. C. Stroud, Negro County Agent.
