HOMEMAKER HELPS

Tall and tinkling... are many beverages that are so-o refreshing! They can be made in a jiffy... slipped at leisure. Serve them at meals... for between meal snacks... for parties. They're tops with children and grown-ups too.

QUICK ORANGEADE

Frost rim of glasses by dipping in white of egg 1/4 inch, then in sugar. Place ice cubes in glasses, add frozen or canned orange juice or orangeade. Garnish with mint sprigs.

JIFFY ICED COFFEE

Make coffee double strength by using half as much water as usual with the same amount of coffee. Fill tall glasses to the brim with crushed ice. Pour hot coffee over the ice. Add sugar and cream to taste.

CLEAR ICED TEA

Add 2 teaspoons of tea or two teabags to each cup of cold water. Let stand in a covered glass pitcher or bottle in the refrigerator for 12 to 24 hours. Strain and ice.
