ducens of the State should congratu-late themselves on having succeeded in getting a law passed which makes it possible to bring about an adjust-ment in the production of types that have been under discussion for a num-ber of years. In my judgment, this is probably the most practical and worksite piece of legislation that the peanut producers have ever had." If a cautioned farmers that peanuts containing in excess of 7 per cent dam-age, 15 per cent foreign material, or 10 per cent moisture in the Virginia-Carolina area, will not be eligible for support.

NOTES ON SOIL CONSERVATION

Mrs. Leroy Nixon recently had ap-proximately 2% miles of ditches cut proximately 2% miles of ditches cut on her farm near Chapanoke with a dragline. This ditching consisted of enlarging and cutting to grade 3% miles of old ditches and constructing one mile of new ditches. J. P. Trueblood has had approxi-mately 1.8 miles of ditches on his farm at Fowler's Fork enlarged and cut
