

Willie Mae Chappell Weds Jack Symons In Church Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Willie Mae Chappell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nereus William Chappell of Belvidere, to John Hill Symons, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hill Symons, Sr., of Chapanoke, took place Sunday, September 2, at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon at the Piney Woods Friends Church in Belvidere.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Carl Yow, assisted by the Rev. C. F. Chaffin in the presence of friends and relatives. The church was decorated with palms, ferns, baskets of white flowers and lighted tapers. Mrs. R. R. White rendered a program of nuptial music and Mrs. Doris Lee White sang, "I Love Thee," "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a candlelight length gown of Bridal white Chantilly lace over satin, fashioned with a sheer yoke, outlined with bertha. Long lace sleeves ended in wedding peaks over the hands. The petal bodice, buttoned down back with self covered buttons, was accented by the full gathered skirt. Her elbow length veil of imported illusion was arranged from a satin capulet. For her bouquet, the bride carried a crescent of white orchids showered with stephanotis. Mrs. Hilton White was her sister's Matron of Honor. She wore a venus geranium gown of nylon net and lace over taffeta, fashioned with a fitted bodice and full gathered skirt. She carried a nosegay of mixed autumn flowers and wore a halo of matching flowers in her hair.

Little Miss Jacqueline Symons, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a dress of white silk made with a fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. She carried a basket of rose petals tied with matching ribbon.

Walter Symons was his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Dan Berry and Joe Powell.

The Mistress of Ceremonies was Mrs. C. E. Cannon. She was attired in a black dress with black accessories. Her corsage was pink roses.

The bride's mother wore a dress of black crepe with black accessories and a white orchid corsage. The mother of the bridegroom wore a purple crepe dress with black accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Immediately following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Symons left for a wedding trip. For traveling the bride chose a grey suit with matching accessories. She wore a corsage of orchids lifted from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Symons is a graduate of Perquimans County High School and has been employed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Washington, D. C., for the past year.

Mr. Symons is a member of the U. S. Army, stationed at Camp Pickens, Va.

Following the rehearsal on Saturday night, a cake cutting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hilton White in Hertford. The guests were registered in the Bride's Book by Mrs. P. E. Lane. Punch, wedding cake, bride's mints and nuts were served with Mrs. D. M. Jackson presiding at the punch bowl and Mrs. C. E. Cannon serving the wedding cake. Approximately fifty guests were present.
