FIRST PERIOD OF WEEKLY'S CONTEST TO END AT NINE O'CLOCK SATURDAY NIGHT

Contestants Are Working Hard as Deadline Nears; Votes Will Decrease After Saturday

The first period voting schedule of The Perquimans Weekly's subscription contest will close at nine o'clock Saturday night, October 27, and after that time fewer votes will be issued on subscriptions sold by the workers entered in the drive, working for the six big prizes to be awarded November 17.

Competition between the workers in this campaign has developed keenly, and the race for the biggest prize, $400 in cash still hangs in the balance. The leaders in the contest are closely "bunched" and any one of them may be the final winner of the first prize.

With the drop in votes on Saturday it can be expected that each of the workers will have good reports on Saturday. They, no doubt, will be striving to build up a vote score that will enable them to carry through to victory. The preliminary work of the drive is over and at this time the workers are so closely grouped, as to vote standing, that the final disposition of the prizes will be determined by the effort put forth during the final days of the contest.

Here is a tip for the workers. Do not try to figure out how many votes it will take to win that $400 prize, for surely you will fail to get enough. . . collect all the subscriptions you possibly can, for hard work and diligent effort will count for the most to be accomplished. The prizes in this campaign will be won by those who work . . . The Weekly would like to award each of the candidates with a big prize but to do this would eliminate competition. Nothing but the best results will come from consistent honest efforts and the worker who covers the territory and works energetically will be the worker who winds up with the best record and vote total.

Right now the race is close, not one of the workers have a position "cinched" and the reports made Saturday may have a lot to do in determining the outcome of the drive. Workers should strive to make the most of every hour left between now and nine o'clock Saturday in order to make the best possible report.

THIS WEEK'S HEADLINES

After weeks of preliminary discussions, the Chinese Communists, in Korea, have agreed to resume peace talks. A new meeting place, Panmunjom, has been selected as the site for the conference between UN leaders and the Reds. Meanwhile, fighting in Korea has continued at a fast pace, for the past few weeks, with reports from the battlefield indicating the Allies have taken a heavy toll of Communist ground troops.

President Truman announced Tuesday night he plans to delay appointment of an envoy to the Vatican. During the past week the issue brought forth much discussion when the President proposed General Mark Clark for the position. Since Congress has adjourned, a White House spokesman reported, the plans will be shelved until the Senate convenes next January.

The nation's biggest tax bill was passed by Congress and signed by President Truman late last week. Under the measure, individual income taxes will rise between 11 and 12 per cent. Excise taxes on a number of items, including gasoline, cigarettes, cars, will also go higher. There will be a decrease on taxes imposed on telegrams, baby oils and a few other articles.

Unrest and mob demonstrations continued in Egypt during the week but British forces had secured the area along the Suez Canal. The trouble began when the Egyptian government broke its treaty with Great Britain regarding the use of the Suez Canal, and maintaining troops within Egypt. London sources report the British government will not recognize Egypt's renouncing of the treaty.

Band Solicitors To Meet Monday Night At Court House

Solicitors, assisting the Hertford Junior Chamber of Commerce in the drive to raise funds for the Perquimans Band, are requested to meet at the Court House in Hertford next Monday night at 8 o'clock. The meeting for the solicitors was called by A. W. Hefren, chairman of this group, who stated plans for completing the campaign, and bringing it to a successful close, will be made.

The Jaycee committee, composed of George Fields, Talmadge Rose and B. J. Holleman, reported this week the drive is making progress, and it is expected the goal of $1,600 will be raised shortly.

In connection with the meeting Monday night, Mr. Hefren stated he hopes to obtain reports from all solicitors after which plans can be made to expedite the drive and bring it to a close possibly by November 7.

The drive for funds is being sponsored by the Hertford Jaycees to provide uniforms for the Perquimans Band. The program, expected to be an annual event, was planned with general improvement and enlargement of the band as the final goal. New uniforms, it was decided, was the greatest need for the present, thus the funds contributed this year will go for that purpose. The uniforms have been ordered, and are expected to be received here about Thanksgiving.

Additional solicitors, named for the drive since last week, were announced today by the committee. These workers are S. T. Perry, New Hope; Clarence Chappell, Belvidere; Linwood C. Winslow, Whiteston; Charlie Umphlett, Winfall, and Charles Ward, Bethel.

County To Vote On Farm Proposition Saturday, Nov. 3rd

All Farmers, Wives and Club Members May Vote on Levy

E. Q. White, Perquimans Chairman for the Nickels for Know How Campaign, today announced the polling places for voting on November 3.

Bethel Township—C. T. Phillips Store at Bethel; Hertford Township—the Agricultural Building at Hertford; New Hope Township—the New Hope Community Building at New Hope; Belvidere Township—W. S. Winslow's Store at Nicanor and Belvidere Service Station at Belvidere; Parkville Township—Fred Winslow's Store at Winfall.

These are the same polling places used by the PMA. They will be open from 6:30 A. M. to 6:30 P. M.

Any person, whether farmer, housewife, 4-H Club member, or F. F. A. member who purchases feed or fertilizer is eligible to vote. Chairman White urges eligible persons to go out and cast a vote in this election.

White pointed out that they will be voting whether or not they will contribute five cents per ton on feeds and fertilizers to help finance expanded agricultural research, supplementing the tax funds now being used for the purpose. The plan is not a federal program but is only State-wide in scope. It was originated by North Carolina farm leaders, and will be voted on only by North Carolina farm people an dif approved will apply only to North Carolina.

It is estimated that the plan would cost the average farmer 35 cents per year. Only the largest farmers would contribute more than $1.00 per year. (In the event the proposed plan is approved in the November 3 referendum, any farmer so desiring can make application and secure a refund on the amount he paid.)

All money realized by this plan will be turned over to the Agricultural Foundation, Inc., at State College to promote research and the distribution of research findings.

Through the added research funds it is hoped to learn more about controlling crop diseases and insects particularly those of peanuts, corn and truck crops. Some help can also be expected in home management problems.

Indians Meet Aces In Grid Game At Edenton Friday Nite

Loss to Williamston Removes Local Team From League Lead

Coch Ellie Fearing's Perquimans Indians, smarting from their 12-6 setback, suffered at Williamston last Friday night will tangle with their old rivals, the Edenton Aces on Friday night. The game will be played in Edenton, starting at eight o'clock.

The rivalry between Perquimans and Edenton runs back years, with Perquimans holding a slight edge in games won; however, Edenton can be counted on to furnish plenty of competition and fans can be assured of a good contest. The dope favors Perquimans to win Friday night, but in football, one can never be sure of the outcome of any game.

The loss, suffered by the Indians last Friday night, at Williamston knocked the Indians out of first place in the Albemarle Conference but there is still opportunity for the locals to tie for the championship.

One of the largest crowds ever to follow an Indian team journeyed to Williamston last week for the conference tilt, and while the loss was a bitter one, the fans witnessed a fine game.

The outcome of the game was in doubt until the final whistle. The teams were evenly matched but the Green Wave cashed in on a couple of breaks that meant victory.

A fumble by the Indians in the second quarter gave Williamston the ball on Perquimans' 20-yard line, and the Green Wave rolled over for the first touchdown.

Perquimans came back strong in the third period and scored a TD after a 68-yard march. Howard Williams smashed over the goal line to make the score 6-6.

On the kick-off, immediately following the Perquimans' score, Williamston started a 73-yard march which ended in the Green Wave scoring a TD and taking a 12-6 lead in the game.

Perquimans made a fine come back in the closing minutes of the contest and had the ball on the five yard line but an intercepted pass gave Williamston possession, and the Green Wave ran out the time left.

County HD Clubs Nutrition Exhibit State Fair Feature

"Are your meals balanced?" was the question asked of all who saw the Perquimans County Home Demonstration Exhibit at the State Fair last week.

The exhibit showed that meals can be balanced by including proper servings of all basic seven groups every day. According to a recent survey, in which Perquimans County took part, four out of five people do not eat all basic seven food groups every day. The exhibit on nutrition was composed mainly of a miniature merry-go-round and a life sized clown. The clown was used as an eye catcher with outstretched arms and a winking eye. About the clown were placed seven foods. The base of the merry-go-round was composed of seven sections, and in each section foods were used to represent each of the basic seven food groups. Charts were displayed on Menu planning according to the Basic Seven Chart and on proper servings of each group. A record on the subject was played as the merry-go-round turned.

County food and nutrition leaders helped in planning and constructing the exhibit. Special mention goes to Mrs. L. J. Winslow of Belvidere who composed words for the recording, to Mrs. Howard and Fred Mathews who sang for the recording, and to Mrs. William Elliott of Hertford, who made the clown.

Those who stayed with the exhibit were: Mrs. Carson Howell of Beech Springs, Mrs. W. J. Perry of Beech Springs, Mrs. M. T. Griffin of Hopewell and Mrs. Norma Elliott of Hertford. Mrs. Tommy Mathews helped in putting up the exhibit.

During the week 254 names and addresses were taken of women who would like a Basic Seven Chart sent to them.

Peanut Producers Urged To Hold Crop For Support Price

R. Flake Shaw, of Greensboro, Executive Vice-President of the North Carolina Farm Bureau, called on all peanut producers this week not to sell their 1951 crop for less than the support price of $226 per ton.

He said that both the North Carolina and Virginia Farm Bureau Peanut Committees, at a meeting last week in Scotland Neck, went on record as being in favor of this move to promote an orderly marketing of this year's crop.

Shaw pointed out that the Farm Bureau organizations in each peanut-producing county of North Carolina and Virginia are making plans to sign up all available peanut storage space to receive farmers' stock peanuts under the PMA loan program, if such space is needed.

The resolution states: "... no producer should sell his 1951 crop of peanuts at less than support price. If the peanut shellers and cleaners do not purchase the crop at support price or better, the government peanut price support program working through the Growers Peanut Cooperative, Inc., is set up and ready to support the crop by purchasing peanuts at support price at licensed warehouses throughout the peanut belts in both States."

Shaw said that the loan program on peanuts is available for all eligible producers not exceeding the farm acreage allotment, and that the producer would receive 100 per cent of the support price for his peanuts adequately stored on or off the farm.

The Farm Bureau Chief said that many warehouses have already been licensed throughout North Carolina and Virginia for peanut storage, and assured all farmers that they would get the support price for their crop if they complied with the storage regulations.
