

B.P.W. Club Holds Dinner Meeting

The Perquimans Business and Professional's Women's Club held its regular monthly dinner meeting Tuesday night, October 23.

The meeting opened with singing of "America the Beautiful," and repeating the Club Collect in unison with Mrs. Roxanna C. Jackson, vice-president, presiding. She welcomed Mrs. W. E. White, a guest. During the brief session of business, the club voted the following: To contribute money to the Perquimans County High School Band, which is being sponsored by the Jaycees; to meet the 4th Friday night at 6 o'clock at Hotel Hertford for its dinner meetings; to send a Christmas present to the Italian War Orphan, which is being sponsored by District Eight. Mrs. Jackson announced the Mid-Year Council meeting of the N. C. Federation of B.P.W. Clubs to be held at O. Henry Hotel, Greensboro, November 9-10, and urged the members to attend this State meeting.

Mrs. Mae B. Fowler was in charge of an interesting and timely program entitled, "To Build a Free World," using posters to further the meaning and understanding of the program. Mrs. Dora T. Riddick gave talks on "The Reorganization of the Americas" and "The Marshall Plan." Mrs. Alice M. Tows told of "The Unity of Purpose," taken from the report of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. Mrs. Pickett A. Sumner gave a report of the District meeting held in Tarboro, emphasizing the Health and Safety Workshop, which she attended stressing Mental Health.
