

BPW Club To Sponsor Girls' Organization

The Perquimans Business and Professional Women's Club met at Hotel Hertford last Friday night for its regular dinner meeting with the president, Miss Hulda Wood, presiding. Table decorations, where the center piece was especially attractive, were arranged by Mrs. Pickett A. Sumner.

Miss Audrey Umphlett, Health Chairman, had charge of the program presenting it in two parts. The first was "Meet Your Mind." The second part, she introduced Mrs. Mary G. Brinn, Hertford Girl Scout Leader, who gave a resume of Senior Girl Scouting. Mrs. Brinn said, "Our teen-agers, both boys and girls, need wholesome recreation." She added, "The Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts are doing a wonderful job along their lines, but in my mind, this is not enough to reach all our teen-agers, and something should be done about it." After discussing the possibilities of a Senior Girl Scout Troop, the members took action to sponsor a Girls' Club for all girls in the 8th, 9th and 10th grades. This will include girls who live in town and those living in the rural section. Through this group, it is hoped that a program on "Social Education" can be worked out for our young people as well as helping them find a place worthwhile in the community. Mrs. Elizabeth F. Grunewald was chosen to head this group with Mrs. Brinn as advisor, assisted by all club members.

Mrs. Grace Coston gave a favorable report on the Benefit Bridge Party which will go toward the Polio Fund Campaign.

Mrs. Alice Baum of Bloomfield, New Jersey, who is the house guest of Miss Kate Blanchard, was recognized.

Miss Wood reminded all members to send cards and visit Mrs. Laura M. Hollowell, a member who is in the Chowan Hospital.

The attendance prize was won by Mrs. Sumner.

Those present were: Miss Wood, Mrs. Sumner, Miss Umphlett, Mrs. Brinn, Mrs. Grunewald, Mrs. Coston, Mrs. Baum, Miss Blanchard, Mrs. Bagley, Mrs. Viola Nachman, Miss Claire Hunter, Mrs. Nettie L. Caravello, Mrs. Ethel L. Perry, Mrs. Mary Inez Harrell, Mrs. Roxanna C. Jackson, Mrs. Mae B. Fowler, Miss Thelma Elliott, Mrs. Sallie M. Lane, Miss Nell Wilson and Mrs. Alice M. Tova.

Fined For Violating State Security Law

McCarthy Mitchell, Negro of 86 King Street in Hertford, was tried before Justice of Peace T. E. Raper last Thursday on charges of attempting to evade the Employment Security laws. The action was brought by Wood Privott, State Official, who reported Mitchell, when he filed claims for September 29 and October 5, 1950, failed to report true earnings while working for the Southern Cotton Oil Co. He was found guilty of attempting fraud and given a 30 day jail sentence which was suspended upon repayment to the commission of $21.50 and payment of costs of court action.

Mr. Privott stated there is further stiff penalties which are attached to such cases of attempted fraud, including the stoppage of benefits until the end of the benefit year and amounts drawn after first week's violation will have to be liquidated before further payments are made.
