

Bobby Smith Wins Speaking Contest

Bobby Smith, a sophomore at Perquimans High School, won first place and a prize of twenty-five dollars in the county Soil Conservation Speaking Contest, held Friday, March 28. Miss Marvin White won the second prize of fifteen dollars. Others in the contest who also made excellent speeches were Tilson Chappell, Billy Elliott and Clarence Chappell. Bobby, who has won several other speaking contests this year, represented Perquimans in the district contest held at the local high school April 2nd. The subject of the speeches was "Green Pastures."

In the sub-group contest held Wednesday afternoon only four counties appeared to compete. Shirley Dilday represented Ahoskie; Leon Privott, Chowan; Bobby Smith, Perquimans, and Gus Woodley, Tyrrell. Miss Dilday, Smith and Privott were chosen to compete in a contest to be held today at Williamston.

FELLOWSHIP MEETS

The Perquimans-Chowan Methodist Youth Fellowship sub-district met at Bethany Church on March 17. A very interesting program was given by the president, Marvina White. The president called the meeting to order, after which the secretary, Nan Ella White, read the minutes and called the roll. The group nominated two candidates to run for the offices of president and secretary of the district. Nan White was nominated for president and Kay Stanton for secretary. Winfall won the attendance banner with 87 per cent present. Refreshments were served by the host church.
