IN LOVING MEMORY OF A DECEASED GIRL SCOUT— BEVERLY LANE
Oh! how we Scouts recall to our memory, that just one year ago you were here in our midst to conduct our devotional for us at our Court of Honor.
Oh! how we miss you and how our hearts long for you.
To us, you were a Girl Scout to be honored, for the attributes that you did so easily attain are ones that every Girl Scout doth so desire.
The attributes you possessed symbolized just these:
You were a Scout who was asked to serve because of your ability and willingness to serve. You were a leader who knew no discouragement and who never had an alibi.
You were humble and sought for the best for those things you did so partake. You were always unselfish in your desires and always so concerned about your troop. You always marched with the group, held your head in the clouds, but your feet on the ground, looking for an opportunity to serve.
Written by Mrs. John Hurdle— Leader and Girl Scouts of PCOGS.
