State 4-H Week Plans Announced

Delegates from 4-H Clubs all over the State will gather in Raleigh July 21-26 for State 4-H Club Week. According to State Leader L. R. Harrill of State College Extension Service, the theme this year will be "Serving as Loyal Citizens through 4-H."

All boys and girls will wear the regulation 4-H uniform during the entire week.

The week's program will include talks by well-known speakers, an outdoor box supper, a visit to the State Capitol and Governor's Mansion, talent shows, and other activities. A State dress revue will be presented with Fredell County in charge, and Guilford County will be in charge of the State health pageant. In the evening, folk dancing and games will be held in Riddick Stadium along with the closing candlelighting ceremony.

A fellowship party will be held this year for the first time. A large motor manufacturing corporation will present a scientific show, "Preview of Progress," covering topics ranging from model jet planes to controlling the sun's energy. Mrs. Ann Livingston of the National Recreation Association will teach a class in recreation for a limited number of delegates.

During the week, one afternoon will be devoted to demonstrations by members of the State College faculty and the agricultural extension staff. Demonstrations by 4-H members include "4-H in Action," by Edgecombe County; "Citizenship," by Pamlico County; "Music Appreciation," and "Everyday Courtesies," by Randolph County.

BERTRAM-KEEM

The marriage of Miss Lucy Virginia Keem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Browning Keem, to John Elwood Bertram, son of Mrs. Mildred R. Bertram and the late John F. Bertram, took place Sunday, June 22, in Norfolk, Va.

Attending the wedding from Hertford were Mr. and Mrs. John O. White, Jr.

CORRECTION

An error occurred in the news announcement of a job opening in the Hertford Post Office, published recently in The Weekly. Wages paid for this position are 16 1/2 per hour, instead of 11 1/2 as reported.

A truth is as comfortable in homely language as in fine speech.
