

Do You Remember?

By J. P. PERRY
CHRISTMAS GREETINGS
... 50-60 or 70 years
Christmas eve, when you up your stocking side
... and wait for Santa
... You were sent to bed early, you slept very little that night and very early Christmas morn you were up to see what good old Santa had put in your stocking? And sure enough he had been, and way down in the toe of the stocking would be a pocketknife and then nuts, raisins, candy, apples and oranges, and perhaps a horn or other toys? And what a wonderful Christmas you'd have. Perhaps $1.00 worth all together? I hope you still remember those days!
