

Hawkins-Hollowell Vows Spoken Nov 29 At Brevard

Miss Alice Carolyn Hawkins, of Chapel Hill and Brevard, and James McNider Hollowell, of Chapel Hill and Hertford, were united in marriage in a ceremony Saturday afternoon, November 29, at 4 P. M., at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reagan Morris Hawkins, Brevard.

Rev. W. B. Thomason, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated at the ceremony. Vows were spoken before a backdrop of white pine with garlands of gladioli draped across the top, seven-branched candelabras with cathedral tapers and floor baskets of white gladioli and fern on either side.

Mrs. Karl Bossee, pianist, presented the wedding music. Prior to the ceremony she played "Intermezzo" by Mascagni; "Traumerel" by Schumann; and "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach. The traditional wedding march from Lohengrin by Wagner was played.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and her only attendant was her sister, Miss Bonnie Faye Hawkins.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown of white imported embroidered lace, made along princess lines with a waltz length skirt. The bodice featured flowers embroidered in seed pearls. Her matching half crown hat held a shoulder-length veil of English illusion. The bride carried a Bible topped with a corsage of white roses.

The maid of honor wore a powder blue brocaded taffeta afternoon gown fashioned with push-up sleeves, a sweetheart neckline with jeweled sapphires and rhinestones, and a full waltz length skirt. Her small matching hat was jeweled with the same trim and she carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

The groom's best man was Archie T. Lane, Jr., cousin of the groom; and ushers were Charles M. Osborne and Spalding McIntosh, Jr.

The mother of the bride wore a gown of ashes of roses lace embroidered on navy net over ashes of roses satin. Her corsage was of rose carnations.

The groom's Mother wore an aqua crepe dress trimmed in gold and a corsage of rose carnations.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home. The bridal table was covered with a lace cloth and a center arrangement of white tapers and white gladioli was used. A three-tiered wedding cake completed the table decorations. Mrs. Fred C. Ward, aunt of the bride, poured punch, and Mrs. Otis Belk served the cake. Mrs. Spalding McIntosh, Jr., presided at the guest book.

For traveling the bride changed into a black suit with eggshell accessories and the white rose corsage from her Bible. The couple will reside at 205 Carr Street in Chapel Hill.

The bride graduated from Brevard College and received her B. S. and RN in nursing from Emory University. She was employed by the Asheville city health department until recently when she accepted a position with the district health department in Pittsboro as a public health nurse.

The groom is also a graduate of Brevard College and is now a senior in the law school at the University of North Carolina. He is a member of Phi Alpha Delta law fraternity.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hawkins, of Hendersonville, grandparents of the bride; Mrs. Fred C. Ward, of Bucyrus, Ohio, aunt of the bride; Mrs. Harry T. Hollowell of Hertford, mother of the groom; Mrs. Archie T. Lane, Sr., aunt of the groom, and Mrs. Archie T. Lane, Jr., both of Hertford; Miss Sally Hollowell, of Hertford, sister of the groom; Mrs. Otis Belk, of Wilmington, Del.; Thomas M. Caldwell, Jr., Charlotte; and Margaret Ann DeBord, Emory University, Georgia.

Seedlings Orders Now Being Taken

Perquimans County Ranger J. W. Nowell stated today that all persons interested in ordering tree seedlings from the N. C. Division of Forestry should contact him, or some representative of the Forestry Division, or County Agent, and place their order for these seedlings immediately. The supply of seedlings is running out rapidly this year and orders should be placed now in order to insure receiving the trees.

County Ranger Nowell reminds everyone who has abandoned farm land that is unproductive at present that the easiest way to put this land into production is to plant it with the appropriate species of tree seedlings. A greater number of seedlings were produced at the Nurseries this year than ever before but the indications are that the supply will be exhausted before the planting season is over.

Everyone desiring trees should try to get their order placed early in January if possible in order to insure delivery of the trees.

State Farm Prices Still On Decline

Farm products brought lower average prices on North Carolina markets during the month ended December 15 than in any other similar period since 1949. The "All Farm Products" index of prices received also showed a decline of 14 points from the previous month, according to the State-Federal Crop Reporting Service.

Type 11 and Type 31 tobacco were among the few items that sold higher than the previous month and also higher than in December of 1951. These commodities averaged 8 points above the November 15 figure and 4 points above the December, 1951 figure. Dairy products, miscellaneous commodities and grains showed an increase, while meat animals and cotton were down. Poultry was 2 points above the previous month but 13 points below the same month in 1951.

On the U. S. level, prices paid for all commodities remained unchanged from the 1952 low of 281 per cent

(of the 1909-14 average) established on November 15. This compares with the index of U. S. prices received of 269 per cent and the N. C. prices received index of 285 per cent for all farm products.
