Do You Remember?
BY J. P. PERRY

Stop your car, Charles, right here in Whiteston. Good morning, Mr. Winslow, you are the very man I want to see. Come, and have a seat for a few minutes. I want to ask you a few questions about this fine community. In the first place, do you remember why it was named Whiteston; it seems to me that there are more Whites in this section. Do you remember when the Friends Meeting House was built? Something more than 50 years ago, I believe. And how about the school building? You had such a good school here 'til the schools were consolidated and yours was discontinued—When you have a good church and a good school in any community, you are quite sure of having a prosperous, progressive neighborhood and you have one of the very best in the county—Where does Whiteston end and where does Nicanor begin? And which community is older? When was Perry's Bridge built, and for what family of Perrys was it named? Do you remember? Do you remember when the road was built across the Dismal Swamp connecting this county with Pasquotank? And when there was a Post Office at Nicanor? Do you remember the Riddicks, the Lanes, the large family of Whites, Williams, Bakers, Copelands, Jolliffs. Good friends in the full sense of the word. When you feel discouraged remember Jonah, he came out all right. Thanks for this nice talk.

New Hope Methodist Church held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. W. E. Dail, on February 13, 1953.

The meeting was in the form of a Valentine party.

The meeting was called to order by the vice president, Bobby Jones. The secretary read the minutes and called the roll. In the new business the club decided to have a Food Bazaar to raise money which would be used to make improvements on the Sunday School room. No definite date was decided upon. There was no old business. The meeting was then turned over to the hostess.

The group participated in several games all of which were enjoyed. Among the games the most outstanding was the one in which everyone pretended to be someone else. Among the outstanding guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Truman and their daughter, Margaret and Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower. Mr. and Mrs. Truman were played by Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dail and Margaret by Miss Jean Stallings. Mrs. Eisenhower by Miss Ann Stallings.

The hostess served a delicious course which was enjoyed by all.

The president announced that Ann Stallings and Wendy Mathews would have the next meeting.

The meeting was then adjourned. Those present were: Carolyn Dail, Barbara Butt, Jean Butt, Philip Bunch, Bobby Jones, Rachel Spivey, Jean Audrey Stallings, Ann Stallings, Billy Baker, Paul Wood, Betty Ann Saunders and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dail.

Again in 1953 . . .

Chevrolet is lowest priced!

Above: The "Two-Ten" 4-Door Sedan. At right: The "One-Fifty" 2-Door Sedan, two of 16 beautiful models in 3 great new series.

It brings you more new features, more fine-car advantages, more real quality for your money . . . and it's America's lowest-priced full-size car!

Farther ahead than ever in quality . . . yet the lowest-priced full-size car . . . with sharply greater economy of operation!

Imagine—the most beautiful car in its field, with new Fashion-First Bodies by Fisher that set the standard of styling, inside and out. The most powerful car in its field, with your choice of a new 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" high-compression engine* or greatly improved 108-h.p. "Thrill-King" high-compression engine.

Yet, with all these new and exclusive advantages, there is no increase in Chevrolet prices, and it remains the lowest-priced line in its field!

Yes, indeed, only Chevrolet gives such excellence with such economy. Come in and prove it at your earliest convenience!

*Combination of Powerflite automatic transmission and 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" engine optional on Bel Air and "Two-Ten" models at extra cost.
