Do You Remember?
BY J. P. PERRY

These places? These? Ballyhack and Goodwin's Mill, the Bear Swamp near Center Hill, Poplar Neck and Chinquapin, Old Mill bridge, and Joseph Brinn, Dozier's Thicket, and "famed" Beech Spring, where Mrs. Felton used to sing, Tump of reeds and the Smith's bridge, the Canal and great big fishes, Hunter's Fork, and Chappell Hill, if it hasn't blown away it's right there still, Newby's bridge and Piney Wood, if you haven't been there you surely should, there is Harvey Neck and Burgess' fork, where the women work and the men? they talk, and Sutton's Creek, where fishing's fine, just get a pole and a good strong line, Bright's Mill Creek and the old swing gate, right on your way to a big estate, White Hat road and Pigeon gap, lots of coons so set your trap, Yeapin Creek and Skinner's bridge, Chapin oak right on the ridge, Hurdle town and Morgan's fork, most too far for you to walk, there's Woodville, too, and a camp nearby, big and strong, at places high. The sheet is full, I'm going to bed, now don't you wish that I were dead?
