The one-day event is being sponsored by the Hertford Grammar School Parent-Teacher Association and it was announced by Mrs. Clinton Eley, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, that the chapter will benefit only through the advance sale of tickets and will receive 50 per cent of the established prices of all general admission tickets sold by them before Circus Day. They will not benefit on tickets purchased at the grounds, and have therefore established ticket sales depots at a number of the Hertford and county stores, as well as school classrooms.

The Beers-Barnes circus offers two elephant acts, trained seals and lions, liberty horse act and pony drills, aerialists, wirewalkers, acrobats, jugglers, performing dogs, monkeys and chimps, several good clown numbers and a cowboy band.

The organization is said to be the only one of its kind to have received a blanket endorsement by a national community service club organization, and offers only a circus performance, menagerie and refreshment stand at the grounds to be occupied. No skill games, concessions or other such attractions are presented, advance agent Gene Christian stated—, "only a 100 per cent old-fashioned circus in an intimate and wholesome atmosphere for children and parents".

Seats for colored will be provided in the circus Big Top, seating more than 1200 persons, it was announced.

BPW Club Holds 5th Anniversary Party April 30th

The Perquimans Business and Professional Women's Club observed its Fifth Anniversary Thursday night, April 30, when special guests were invited to share in the celebration at Hotel Hertford. Mrs. Gladys H. Perry, Social Chairman, greeted each person and Mrs. Ethel L. Perry assisted Mrs. Addie J. Keegan in presenting them with corsages.

Mrs. Pickett A. Sumner and Mrs. Grace Morris had charge of the table decorations when roses were used throughout. Mrs. Viola D. Nachman and Mrs. Roxanna C. Jackson donated the favors. Mrs. Grace M. Coston, and Miss Thelma Elliott completed the arrangement when Year Books and Emblem cards marked the place of each at the individual tables where a delicious chicken menu was served.

Mrs. Anne A. Nowell, president, opened the meeting when the invocation was sung in unison. The club members welcomed the guests in song to the tune of "Happy Birthday" and the guests responded to the tune of "Clementine".

After each member presented her guest, Mrs. Nowell recognized the following: Mrs. Ruby C. Blythe, Rocky Mount, first vice president of the N. C. Federation of BPW Clubs; Miss Mildred Dozier, Rocky Mount, past district director; Mrs. Alice E. Futrell, field representative of the N. C. Department of Motor Vehicles Safety Division; Mrs. Minnie Wilma Hurdie, Hertford Lions Club president; Mrs. Elizabeth C. Harris, Hertford VFW Auxiliary president; Mrs. Alice M. Towe, District Director; Mrs. Dora T. Riddick, District Secretary-Treasurer, and Miss Hulda Wood, District Public Affairs Contact Chairman.

Mrs. Viola D. Nachman presented the program when Miss Hulda Wood gave an informative talk on the history of the National and State Federations of BPW Clubs; Mrs. Pickett A. Sumner gave some interesting facts about the first president of the N. C. Federation when it was organized in 1919, Miss Julia Alexander of Charlotte, the first woman attorney to plead a case before the N. C. Supreme Court and is a close friend of Mrs. Sumner; Mrs. Alice M. Towe read the history of the Perquimans Club and Mrs. Lots A. Stokes gave the "Reasons for joining a BPW club". The humorous part of the program was a solo by Miss Ruth Tucker and Miss Kate Blanchard at the piano; readings by Mrs. Margaret W. Bagley and Miss Thelma Elliott, and original poems by Mrs. Dora T. Riddick. The program closed with the Club Collect repeated in unison.

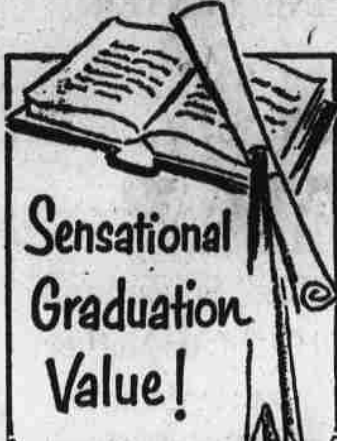

D. M. Jackson won the guest prize, which was a birthday cake, complete with five candles. The meeting closed with the group singing a BPW song to the tune of "Auld Lang Syne".

Those present were: Mesdames Joseph Nowell, Jr., Fenton Blythe, J. R. Futrell, J. Elton Hurdie, J. L. Harris, J. C. Blanchard, I. C. Yagel, Chas. Payne, W. E. Dail, E. M. Perry, J. H.
