

4-H Church Sunday Schedule Is Given

4-H Church Sunday will be observed in the following churches May 16th. Morning Services: Piney Woods Friends Church, Winalf Methodist, New Hope Methodist, Berea Church of Christ, Hertford Baptist, Burgess Baptist, Bethel Baptist. Evening service will be held at Hertford Methodist. This was announced by Miss Clara Mason, Assistant Home Agent.

In planning this event Miss Mason said, "The rural church and its program is the strongest bond for holding together the rural community in the nation. It serves to bring people closer together in bonds of friendship and understanding with their fellowmen and into a closer relationship with supreme power. All of this magnifies the importance of giving to our young people, and especially to our farm boys and girls, experiences which will impress upon them the importance of spiritual growth and development in their own lives and emphasize the places of the rural church in the community."

Barbecue Dinner Held Here Monday

On Monday night, May 10, Preston Nixon, Cliff Morgan, and Clarence Clarence Chappell, Sr., entertained approximately 50 people at a barbecue supper at the Agricultural Building. These people included prospective buyers, judging team members, exhibitors, parents of judging team members and special guests. Among the guests were J. K. Butler, Jr., and Sam Buchanan, Animal Husbandry Specialist from State College.

The Purebred Cattlemen's Association of Perquimans County offered a trophy to the best steer from Perquimans County in the Albemarle Fat Stock Show and Sale. This was offered by Commander Tim Brinn, president of the Purebred Cattlemen's Association.

The meeting closed after a discussion on the buying of the steers and other types of livestock.

SOCIETY MEETS

Piney Woods Missionary Society met Saturday P. M., at the home of Mrs. N. W. Chappell, with Mrs. V. C. Lane and Mrs. Howard Chappell co-hostesses.

Sixteen members were present and an answered roll call with Bible verses onest account of the manner of living habits, customs and religion of the people there. She also brought to the meeting many interesting items of clothing, jewelry, pottery, etc.

During the social hour the hostesses served a delicious dessert course.

Mrs. L. J. Winalow gave the scripture lesson from Ephesians 5 and 6, stressing the upward call to family unity and closed with the prayer poem "O Happy Home." President Miss Lucy White read the monthly letter from the Y. M. President in which she listed needs for workers in the various fields. She also reported on the April Board meeting in Richmond, Ind.

Miss Lucy White had charge of the day's lesson—a series of questions for discussions—in which most of the members took part. She summarized the thoughts expressed in the poem "Happy the Home When God Is There."

Mrs. Callie Copeland gleaned from the Missionary Advocate items very interesting and helpful, especially the church garden with its five rows of peas, three rows of squash, four rows of turnips and five rows of lettuce. After announcements the meeting adjourned. The hostess served ice cream, cake and salted nuts.

WOODVILLE W.M.U. MEETS

The W.M.U. of Woodville Baptist Church met on Tuesday night, April 20, at the home of Mrs. Charlie Wilson. Hostesses were Mrs. Moody Harrell and Mrs. Wilson. Mrs. E. R. Whedbee led the devotional. After the business session Mrs. Elizabeth Ross presented the program on "Medical Missions in South America." Mrs. Ross, having lived in different sections of Latin America, gave a very interesting account of the manner of liv-

During the social hour the hostesses served a delicious dessert course.
