

Farm-Home Week

BY LINDSEY PERRY
Home Agent

Farm and Home Week was climaxed on Thursday night, June 10, by the pageant "Green A-Growing." This was a history of Home Demonstration work for the past 40 years. All Extension personnel had a part in this. Mrs. Morris Griffin and Mrs. J. H. Basnight, from Perquimans County, attended the entire week. They attended the various classes and discussions offered for the week.

A tour to the home of John Harris was an outstanding highlight of the week. The grounds were the center of interest for approximately 1,400 women.

Outstanding speakers of the week were Under Secretary of Agriculture Trus D. Morse, and Dr. R. L. Beukenkamp, from the embassy of the Netherlands, Washington, D. C.

Pete Thompson, Ralph Sasser, Carson Spivey, Warner Madre, Joshua Sutton and Mrs. Sutton, attended the meetings on Thursday and the pageant Thursday night.

FAMILY REUNION

Mathews Brothers On Scouting Trip

Scout Explorers Bobby, Tommy and Sonny Mathews, members of the Hertford Troop of Boy Scouts, left Norfolk June 14 to go to the Philmont Scout Ranch, located at Cimarron, New Mexico. The local youths are members of a group of Scouts of the Tidewater Area participating in this tour. They will return home on July 8.

Enroute to the Scout Ranch the group will visit Asheville, Pulaaki and Memphis, Tenn., Ft. Smith, Arkansas, Amarillo, Texas, and Raton, N. M. On the return trip home the group will visit such points of interest as Colorado Springs, Colo., Wichita and Kansas City, Kansas, St. Louis, Missouri, Lexington, Ky., and Radford, Va. Famous Camp Carson and a number of Naval and Air Force plants will be inspected during the visit to the above points.

The Mathews boys are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Mathews.
