Local Bank Splitting Capital Stock Shares

Following action taken recently by the Directors of the Hertford Banking Company, capital stock of the bank is now being split ten shares for one, it was reported this week by R. M. Riddick, Jr., president of the bank. In voting to increase the number of outstanding shares of stock of the bank, the directors voted to change the par value of the stock from $100 per share to $10 per share. Each of the present stockholders will receive 10 shares of the new stock for each one share now owned. Notices regarding the transaction, and the split in the stock, have been mailed to the stockholders, Mr. Riddick reported.

Strange Feet

Miss A.—It's a pity how snobbish that Barnes girl has become since she was accepted at the ballet. Mr. S.—Yes, it seems as though her dainty feet have gone to her head.

Amid life's quests, there seems but worthy one, to do men good. —Gamaliel Bailey.
