MISSIONARY SOCIETIES MEET

The two Missionary Societies of Up River Church, the Elizabeth White Circle and the Alice Chappell Circle, met in joint-session with the Piney Woods Circle Saturday afternoon at the Whiteston Community Center.

President Mrs. Mary White presided and spoke words of greetings and welcome to all.

The Piney Woods new president, Mrs. Virginia Winslow, acted as secretary. After the opening hymn, Mrs. Eunice Winslow gave the Bible message from Phil. 3 and closed her thoughts with the poem "Touching Shoulders." A brief business period followed, after which Mrs. Ruth Layden sang a solo, "My Beautiful Home Sweet Home."

We were favored and honored with the presence of Mrs. I. A. Ward of Hertford as our guest speaker. She used as a basis for her thoughts "Being Faithful and Steadfast" and urged that we be steadfast in our prayer life and Christian service. She stressed the little acts of kindness and deeds of charity which spread joy and happiness along the way. Her every thought and expression were most inspiring to her listeners. The group sang together "Glad to be the Tie," and Mrs. Eunice Winslow and Elizabeth White closed with prayers, especially in appreciation for Mrs. Ward, whose radiant life has been spared to give life and light to all with whom she comes in contact.

The joint hostesses, Misses Margaret and Lucy White and Mrs. Linwood Winslow, served punch, cookies, nuts and mints.
