11 FLIERS—EDGE IS "CONFIDENT"—"SHENHOWER SET TO RUN"—"THE OPENING HOUSE BATTLE"

Washington—The fate of eleven American fliers now imprisoned in the Chinese was not finally settled by U.N. Secretary-General Hammarskjöld. Thus the hope of many Americans, that the fliers could be released as a result of Hammarskjöld's protests, was dashed.

Even so, what Hammarskjöld has said to U. N. diplomats, including Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., is encouraging to most of them. Lodge says he is now confident the fliers will be released. It seems apparent from the information so far given out that the Chinese are bargaining for the fliers' release.

They are bargaining in an indirect way, however, and have not yet listed any conditions which could bring about the immediate return of the fliers to the U. S. One of the things the Chinese want is a recognition from the United States that they exist!

It has long irritated the Chinese that the greatest country in the world does not admit they are a government of China, does not carry on diplomatic relations with them on minor levels. An example of this was the U. S. attitude toward the Geneva Conference.

Our position was one of not talking to the Chinese, and trying to get the British, who recognize the Reds as controlling China, to do our negotiating. The Chinese Reds forced us to do some negotiating with them, however, though we carried this on with minor officials, though dealing with a minor rate.

And U. S. policy has been steady in recognizing the defeated Nationalists as the government of China. Though, that no doubt is the wish of the American people, the Communists are actually the administrators of China. This recognition of the Nationalists in Washington and as the U. N. damages Red China's prestige in the Far East.

It would be a diplomatic achievement for them if the United States were forced to officially admit the Nationalists were not the government of China. Eventually the United States may have to admit as much, although Americans will always think of the Nationalists as the rightful authorities of China.

But the fact that our side lost, and the realization that we made mistakes in supporting our side, does not change the facts. The Chinese Communists control China. We want to deal with China on any question, the Chinese Communists are the people to talk to. That is what the Chinese seem to be pressing for, with the eleven imprisoned fliers. They want the U. S. and U. N. to be forced to officially carry on diplomatic transactions with them.

If this country does not want to do this, a delay in the release of the fliers might have to be accepted. The question of dealing with the Chinese Reds is a hot one in Washington these days, with some arguing that there is nothing to lose in dealing with them and many others holding out for a continuation of the present non-existence attitude. As heart-rending as it is, the imprisonment of the eleven fliers is not a question so far reaching as to warrant a change of foreign policy because of it. The Communists have done far more to many other Americans.

What we call rational grounds for our beliefs are often extremely irrational attempts to justify our instincts. —T. H. Huxley.

LIBRARY NEWS

The Perquimans County Library this week has four new books for adults. A biography of Sir Walter Scott heads the list as most favorably reviewed. "Champagne Before Breakfast" is a newspaper columnist's anecdotes and personal experiences. "Pray for a Brave Heart" is a new book by that master of suspense stories, Helen McInnes, and a new book by Loring will delight the readers of romances.

"Beyond the Barriers of Time and Space" and "Steps to the Stars" will be popular with the ever-growing group interested in science-fiction. Another book of interest to older boys and girls is "Man Under Water," a recounting of fables and scientific facts concerning experiences under water ranging in subject matter from the naked pearl divers to modern atomic submarines, including a discussion of many ingenious devices tried out by men in their search for a means of exploring the underwater realm.

Other books for teen-agers are "Smooth Sailing," "The San Sebastian," and a biography, "Gene Rhodes, Cowboy."

NATURAL AS A MOUNTAIN STREAM

CHILEAN NITRATE of SODA is the world's only NATURAL NITRATE FERTILIZER

NATURAL as the water in the stream, Chilean Nitrate is the only natural nitrate. Guaranteed 42 per cent plant food.

- * Richest of plant foods, Chilean's many extra values make it one of the most efficient and economical nitrogen fertilizers.
- * Chilean's nitrogen content is 100 per cent nitrate. Ideal for top-dressing and side-dressing. Free flowing, spreads evenly and smoothly.
- * Chilean needs only moisture from the air to dissolve—no waiting for rain—fast, effective action.
- * Every ton of Chilean contains sodium equivalent to 650 pounds of commercial ammonium—an acid-destroying agent. The more Chilean you use, the greater its acid-destroying value.
- * Sodium supplements potash—when necessary, substitutes for it—reduces leaching losses of potash, calcium, magnesium—releases unavailable potash in the soil.
- * Sodium increases availability of phosphate in the soil and improves efficiency of applied phosphate.
- * Chilean is rich in small quantities of minor elements necessary for healthy vigorous growth—it's the only natural combination of 100 per cent nitrate nitrogen, sodium and minor elements.
