

Regional Training Union Conference Planned At Windsor

Date for the annual Regional Training Union Convention, for the training unions of the Baptist Churches in the Chowan and West Chowan Associations, has been announced by the Regional Director, Norman Earl Goodwin of Ahoskie, as Friday afternoon and night, April 22, at the Cashie Baptist Church in Windsor.

An interesting and helpful program has been planned by the executive committee in cooperation with the State Training Union Department and a new feature is being introduced and experimented with this year. The entire program of the convention is being arranged for only two sessions and with the idea of sponsoring the one day as "Family Day". Every Baptist family is urged to attend and competent care for children of the younger ages will be provided in the Nursery Department of the Cashie Church.

All pastors, directors and leaders are asked to keep this date and new plan before both training union members and the entire membership of the church and that strong delegations be encouraged.

History Of A Panic
"Only cheese for lunch?"
"Yes, the cutlets caught fire and I spread to the apple tart, so I had to take the soup to put it out."
