

Fire Destroyed Barn Thursday
 A barn owned by a bolt of lightning, destroyed a barn located on the farm of Tom Oliver of the Barren Swamp community Thursday afternoon of last week. The Hertford Fire Department was called to the scene but the blaze had consumed the building before the arrival of the firemen. A peanut digger and a number of small farm tools, as well as the building, was lost in the fire.

WHITE-TRUEBLOOD

In a small but impressive wedding on June 11, 1955, Miss Mary Ruth White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton White of Denton, Texas, became the bride of Thomas Earl Trueblood of Fort Worth, Texas, formerly of Durants Neck, son of Mrs. Lucile H. Trueblood and the late Altona Trueblood.
 The bride was attired in a white nylon dotted swiss dress with white accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with a spray of carnations with hanging love-knot streamers.

Miss Ann McSpadden of Denton, Texas was maid of honor. She wore a blue nylon dress and her corsage was pink carnations. Bill Smith of Post, Texas was best man.
 The mother of the bride wore a white nylon dress with white accessories and white carnations. Following the ceremony a reception was given in the home of the bride.
 Mr. and Mrs. Trueblood are now making their home in Denton, Texas.

New Home News
 Mr. and Mrs. Elmer George Byron, Mrs. Lucille E. Trueblood, Miss Betty Lou Trueblood and J. N. Byrum have returned to their homes after spending some time in Denton, Texas visiting Mrs. Trueblood's son and daughter-in-law.
 The chief cause of human error is to be found in the prejudices picked up in childhood.
