Canned Goods Plentiful, Offered at Bargain Prices
Colonial Stores has just announced receipt of large shipments of canned foods under two of the country's best-known labels, Stokely and Van Camp. A wide variety of these products are already on display in local Colonial Supermarkets, where they are being featured at sale prices all week long.
"Canned goods are currently in plentiful supply," stated Mr. J. E. Harry, Colonial Senior Buyer. "It is a real buying opportunity, brought about by the fact that canneries are now working full-time to process abundant 1965 crops. By ordering in carload lots, Colonial has been able to buy at unusually low prices and, in accordance with our policy, we are passing this savings on to our customers."
