

SENATOR SAM ERVIN SAYS

Washington—I have had an opportunity to visit many sections of Eastern North Carolina in recent days. Despite severe blows from nature, I found an unbounded enthusiasm for the future.

Community Loyalty

Since August I have maintained a rather extensive speaking and traveling schedule to all sections of North Carolina. One of the happy observations that I have made is that increasing emphasis is being placed on community development. Rural churches are now attractive offices for spiritual development. Community affairs are often centered around a demonstration building, and in these communities young men and women are learning fundamentals of leadership and good citizenship. Their further development is of concern to all, and North Carolina is fortunate to have 20 church related colleges. The role of the church college was the subject of a recent talk that I prepared for Gardner-Webb College in Boiling Springs.

A Definition

In my comments on the subject, I used the term "church college" to signify a church-founded or church-related institution of learning which believes that its students need for life's journey Christian faith as well as some knowledge of the arts and sciences, and which undertakes to furnish them the basis of such faith.

The church college looms large in American history. This is necessarily so because of the character of the settlers of the thirteen original colonies. These people were a God-fearing folk wedded to the concept that what sculpture is to a block of marble, education is to the soul.

BPW Club Sponsoring Christmas Packages For T.B. Patients

The Business and Professional Woman's Club of Hertford is sponsoring a Christmas window this year of packages received to be sent to TB patients of Perquimans County. The packages will be put in the window of J. C. Blanchard & Co., Inc., the first week in December. The club will offer a prize to the best all-around package and a second prize to the next best. Everyone in the county is eligible to participate, and the club hopes that some will remember the unfortunate with a package to make Christmas more real. The package can contain anything that can be used by a patient in a hospital or a shut-in at home, and can be left at Nachman's Insurance Agency or J. C. Blanchard & Co., Inc.

Bloodhounds Locate Missing Patient

Bloodhounds from the Woodville Prison Camp were used Sunday in locating a 79 year old patient of the Trueblood Boarding Home, New Hope, who was reported missing from the home about 9 A. M., Sunday. The patient, Mrs. Leggett, was found in a woods about three miles from the home at about 4:45 Sunday afternoon by Sheriff J. K. White and a number of residents of New Hope who joined in the search. Sheriff White reported the bloodhounds were brought into the search and found the trail six and a half hours after the woman was reported missing.

CLUB MEETS

The Beech Spring Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. W. J. Perry on October 11.

Mrs. Joe Layden, president, presided over the meeting, beginning with all singing "Follow The Gleam." Mrs. Perry had charge of the devotional, reading the 93rd Psalm, followed with all praying The Lord's Prayer in unison. The Secretary, Mrs. W. H. Lamb, read the September minutes, which were approved, and called the roll with 12 members and one visitor present. Both old and new business was discussed. The nominating committee chairman, Mrs. Carroll Williams, presented a list of new officers for the coming year as follows: Mrs. W. J. Perry, president; Mrs. W. H. Lamb, vice president, and Mrs. W. E. Howell, secretary. The new officers are to begin their duties in January. The club members present handed in their individual reports for the year. Mrs. A. E. Layden gave a reading on "The Care of Poultry." Mrs. W. J. Perry gave some instructions on "Good Housekeeping."

The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. Joe Webb, Jr., home agent, who gave a very interesting demonstration on "Out of the Frying Pan into the Broiler."

The meeting adjourned with all repeating the Club Collect. During the social hour Mrs. Perry, hostess, served refreshments.

SARAH MAE RIDDICK

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Thomas F. Monds, who passed away 5 years ago today, October 19, 1950:

Before our eyes you faded
Growing weaker every day
Patiently bearing your suffering
Until God called you away.

To see you slowly leave us
As helpless we stood by
And drank the cup of bitter grief
The day we saw you die.

You heard a voice we couldn't hear,
Which said you cannot stay;
You saw a hand we couldn't see
Which beckoned you away.

Some day we hope to meet you
In that land so bright and fair,
For Jesus, Our Saviour, invites us
His beautiful home to share.

YOUR LOVING WIFE
AND CHILDREN
