Board Of Education To Meet December 15

Members of the Perquimans County Board of Education will hold their December meeting on Thursday, December 15 at 6 P. M., at the home of Superintendent of Schools J. T. Biggers. The Board will be guests at dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Biggers and a business meeting will be conducted following the dinner.

LIBRARY NEWS

A noteworthy addition to the Perquimans County Library has been received this week, "The Interpreters Bible," in nine volumes (three others are yet to be completed). This scholarly and comprehensive commentary upon each verse, using both the King James and the Revised Edition, is a valuable aid to any serious student or reader of the Bible.

Two new books were added this week to the already large collection of Christmas books. They are: "The True Meaning of Christmas," by Bishop Fulton Sheen, and "Welcome Christmas," a collection of Christmas poetry. For young people the library has a new book by Cavanna, a new horse story by Farley and an adventure story, "Kel of Gold."

HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB

The membership chairman sent in a report of 34 paid members. Plans were discussed for Christmas gifts and baskets for the needy and it was voted to leave the final decision with Mrs. Grace Morris, child welfare chairman. The president stated that 3 members would attend the area meeting in Edenton on December 5.

At the conclusion of the business session a social hour was enjoyed by all with the exchanging of Christmas gifts. A delicious salad course was served by the hostesses. The poor man must walk to get meat for his stomach, the rich man to get a stomach to his meat.
—Benjamin Franklin.
