BPW Club Backing Seven-Point Plan

The Perquimans Business and Professional Women's Club met with Mrs. Roxanne Jackson on Thursday night, February 21.

During the business session, the club members voted to write C. R. Holmes, representative to the State Legislature, asking him to back the seven-point plan which is being presented to the General Assembly by the State Legislative Council.

It was announced that the spring District meeting would be held March 24 at the school in Edenton. A most impressive and inspiring program was given by Miss Thelma Elliott. The theme of the program was International Relations, and was presented in the form of a candlelight ceremony in tribute to the International Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs.

In the very near future, the club will again have available Hertford souvenir plates, such as they have sold in past years. Anyone who is playing were Mesdames J. C.

interested in purchasing one of these plates, please contact Mrs. Roxanne Jackson, or any member of the club.

The hostess served a delicious sweet course, in colors appropriate to the observance of George Washington's birthday, to the following members: Mrs. Alice Towe, Miss Thelma Elliott, Mrs. Essie Burbage, Mrs. Dora Riddick, Mrs. Sallie Lane, Mrs. Viola Nachman, Mrs. Miriam Haskett, Mrs. Mary Dale Lane, Mrs. Betty Swindell and Mrs. Sally Bonner.
