Operation Remember Honors War "Greats"

A long delayed tribute will be paid to fifty of America's top retired World War II Admirals, Marine Generals and its most decorated Naval and Marine enlisted personnel on May 1st, 2nd and 3rd by the Navy League of the United States in celebration and gatherings to be held in both Annapolis and New York City, reports the New York Convention and Visitors Bureau.

In a series of events, dinners and parades, that has been aptly titled "Operation Remember," these former Naval and Marine "greats" will receive the homage and honor they so richly deserve and is far overdue.

Starting with a regimental review of Cadets at Annapolis, the entourage will fly to New York as guests of the Navy League and New York City where they will be greeted by Mayor Robert F. Wagner, following the traditional parade up the canyons of lower Broadway.

Also honoring the distinguished visitors during their New York sojourn will be elements of the Fleet and Air Arm to include the famed "Nautilus," the Regulus II guided missile, and the A4D, Navy's fastest jet combat plane, which will all be open for visiting by the general public.

Topping the honor list in "Operation Remember" will be such noted wartime figures as Admirals William D. Leahy, Chester W. Nimitz, William F. "Bull" Halsey, Raymond A. Spruance, Thomas C. Kincaid, and Marine Generals Alexander A. Vandergrift, Clifton B. Cates, and Lemuel C. Shepard.

BRIDAL SHOWER

Miss Jo Anne Matthews, who will be married June 2 to Clifton Hollowell, was feted Friday night at a floating miscellaneous show from 7 to 9 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Winston Lane, Sr., by Mrs. Walter Lane, Mrs. J. B. Basnight, Miss Nancy Lane, Mrs. Clarence Chappell, Jr., and Mrs. Winston Lane, Sr.

The entire lower floor of the home was decorated with arrangements of spring flowers. Upon arrival the guest of honor was presented a corsage. The guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Winston Lane, Sr. and Mrs. Howard Matthews. Gifts were received by Miss Nancy Lane and Mrs. Clarence Chappell, Jr., presided in the gift room. Each guest was registered by Mrs. Walton Lane in a book of wedding bells. Mrs. Lane directed the guests to the dining room where they were greeted by Mrs. J. B. Basnight.

The dining table was covered with an imported white silk cloth. The centerpiece was an arrangement of five white cathedral candles decorated daintily with fern and lilies of the valley tied with white satin ribbon. The base of the candles stood in a bed of ivy and fern in which nestled orange blossoms, lilies of the valley, wedding bells, wedding rings and pairs of love birds. Mrs. Winston Lane, Jr., presided at the punch bowl. Ribbon sandwiches, open-face heart and bell sandwiches, nuts, cheese twists, and miniature wedding cakes were served.

About fifty guests brought or sent gifts.
