Rites Held Here For Mrs. Norman

Funeral services for Mrs. Josephine Elliott Norman, who died Tuesday morning, August 18, at Scotland County Memorial Hospital in Laurinburg, of a heart attack suffered after a broken hip on Monday, were conducted Thursday morning at 1 o'clock at the Lynch Funeral Home by the Rev. James O. Mattox, pastor, assisted by the Rev. C. W. Duling of Windsor, N. C. During the service soft organ music was played by Miss Kate Blanchard. The casket was covered by a pall of white glads, lavender mums, asters and fern. Pallbearers were J. P. Perry, D. J. Pritchard, M. J. Gregory, Robert White, W. F. Madre, Corbin Dozier, Reginald Tucker and Charles Johnson. Burial followed in Cedarwood Cemetery. Mrs. Norman, who was well known here, was a native of Perquimans County and spent most of her life in Hertford until a few years ago, when she decided to make her home with her daughter. She was the daughter of the late Eli and Sallie Thomas Elliott and wife of the late Louis W. Norman. She was a member of the Hertford Baptist Church, taking a leading part in all of its activities as long as her health permitted. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. E. Northeast Gardner of Greensburg and Mrs. Robert E. Lewis, Jr., of Richmond, Va., and two grandchildren, Mrs. Arthur J. Jackson, Jr., of Hertford.

Inter-City Group To Visit Raleigh Seeking Industry

Money Voted

Congress on Tuesday passed and sent to the President a compromised military construction bill calling for the outlay of $1,232 billions during the current fiscal year. Included in the bill was authorization for the spending of $5,728,000 for construction of new operations at the Navy's seaplane base at Harvey Point. The sum approved for Harvey Point is expected to expedite the starting of proposed work at the local base.

Representatives from Elizabeth City, Hertford and Edenton are scheduled to visit Raleigh next Tuesday, August 27, for conferences with Governor Luther Hodges and W. P. Saunders, director of the Department of Conservation and Development, to discuss prospects for procurement of new industry for the Albemarle area.

Arrangements for the conference next week were concluded by State Senator Elton Aydtlett. Plans for this conference were developed at a meeting held here several weeks ago at the suggestion of Mayor Ernest Keahyes of Edenton, when town and county officials gathered to discuss ways and means of giving the local economic situation a "shot in the arm."

At the meeting in Hertford an area committee composed of W. P. Jones, Edenton; A. W. Houtz, Elizabeth City, and R. L. Hollowell, Hertford, was named to head up a joint industrial group for the three counties. Mr. Jones was named as chairman of the committee.

R. L. Hollowell, chairman of the Perquimans Industrial Committee, stated Wednesday that the delegation to Raleigh next week will include Mayor V. N. Darden, Representative Carroll R. Holmes and J. Emmett Winslow and Mr. Hollowell.

Representatives of the three towns will meet in Edenton at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning prior to the visit to Raleigh to outline developments to be presented the Governor and other state officials.

Miss Anne Sawyer And Carl Jordan Married August 4

Miss Anne Elizabeth Sawyer and Earl Vinson Jordan were married August 4 at 5 P. M. The Rev. Walter Perry performed the double ring ceremony in a setting of white flowers, palms, ferns and candlelight in Berea Church of Christ.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Sawyer of Hertford and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Jordan of Ryland.

Mrs. Guy Webb presented the nuptial music and accompanied Mrs. Melvin Eure who sang "I Love You Truly," "Because," and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz length gown of white chantilly lace fashioned with sabrina neckline, embroidered over the hands and pointed basque bodice. The bouffant skirt was finished in scallops. Her waist length veil of silk illusion was arranged from dainty tiara of iridescent sequins and orchid and carnations atop a white Bible from which streamers tied with florets fell.

Miss Katherine Sawyer, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a blue waltz length lace dress with a matching circular veil and carried a nosegay of red roses and carnations.

Miss Mary Alice Sawyer, sister of the bride, and Miss Christine Jordan, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. Miss Sawyer wore a green taffeta dress with a matching circular veil and carried a nosegay of yellow carnations. Miss Jordan wore a lavender taffeta dress with a matching circular veil and carried a nosegay of pink carnations.

Herbert Ray Lane of Suffolk, Va., was best man. Ushers were William Landing, Jr., uncle of the bride, and Glenn Langly, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding a blue silk dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue dress with matching accessories. They each wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Preston Divers, aunt of the bride, was mistress of ceremonies. She wore a navy blue dress with white accessories and wore a corsage of pink carnations.

After the wedding the bride changed into a navy blue sheath dress with matching accessories and carried the white orchid lifted from her Bible.

After a trip to Florida and Tennessee the couple are making their home in Ryland. On Friday night following the wedding rehearsal the mother of the bride entertained at the home of Mrs. Preston Divers at a cake cutting for the bridal party.

Services will be conducted each night at 8 o'clock and the guest pastor will be the Rev. G. N. Dulin of New Bern. The public is invited to attend the services.

Farmers Day Feature Exhibit

The 4-H's, Home Demonstration Club women and farmers all over Perquimans County are getting articles ready for exhibition for Farmers' Day this year. Farmers' Day will be Wednesday, August 28. Articles will be brought in the day before, August 27, from 2 P. M. until 6 P. M., and judged that night so they will be ready for the big day. No articles will be removed from display until after 9 P. M., on Farmers' Day. This way everyone will be able to visit Farmers Day and see the articles displayed.

The Home Demonstration Club women will have a concession stand again this year where tasty homemade cakes, pies, ham sandwiches, etc., will be sold. Mrs. M. T. Griffin is chairman of this stand.

The Perquimans County 4-H Clubs will have on display an exhibit on "4-H Room Improvement Pays." This exhibit was one of the six 4-H Club exhibits representing N. C. 4-H Clubs at the State Fair in Raleigh last fall.

Several local stores and businesses will have exhibits of their merchandise on display. Cash prizes and ribbons will be awarded to the best entries.

"Let's make our Farmers' Day the biggest and best ever," stated Miss Nancy Henderson, home agent.

Miss Shirley Eure Becomes Bride Of Lon Clyde Brooks

The marriage of Miss Shirley Janet Eure, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delwin H. Eure of Hertford, Route 3, to Lon Clyde Brooks of Abilene, Texas, was solemnized Sunday, August 11, in the Bear Church of Christ, Hertford, Route 3. The double ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, the Rev. Neal Puckett, in a setting of palms, fern, white gladioli, aster gypsophila and lighted tapers.

Miss Mollie Lu Yeates, accompanied by Mrs. J. D. Yeates, sang "I Love Thee," "Through the Years" and as a benediction, "The Wedding Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a wedding gown of white silk, styled with a scalloped edge sabrina neckline, fitted bodice, full skirt, accented with scalloped lace inserts. The long leaves ended in wedding points over the hands.

Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was arranged from a scalloped half-hat, embroidered with iridescences. She carried a white Bible topped with white roses.

Miss Mary Frances Eure, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of beige taffeta, with matching mitts and bandeau and veil. She carried red roses.

Bridesmaids were Miss Lyn Brooks, sister of the bridegroom of Texas; Miss Marie Vines of Washington, D. C.; Miss Marjorie Wright of Halifax, N. C. They wore gowns of pale green taffeta with matching mitts and bandeaux and carried red roses.

Rotary Governor To Visit Hertford Club Next Tuesday

C. Gordon Maddrey

The Rotary Club of Hertford will be host to C. Gordon Maddrey, Governor of the 771 District of Rotary International, who is making his annual official visit to each of the 39 Rotary Clubs in northern part of North Carolina. He will address the local club and confer with President Morris, Secretary Kanoy and committee chairmen on Rotary administration and service activities, Tuesday, August 27.

Mr. Maddrey is a member and Past President of the Rotary Club of Ahsokie. He is a Past President of the North Carolina Farm Bureau; a member of the North Carolina General Assembly for four terms; active member of the Tax Study Commission; Deacon and Sunday School teacher in the First Baptist Church of Ahsokie. He was elected as a District Governor of Rotary International for the 1957-58 fiscal year at Rotary's 48th Annual Convention in Lucerne, Switzerland, last May.

Wherever Rotary Clubs are located, President Morris asserted in discussing the Governor's visit their activities are similar to those of the Rotary Club of Hertford because they are based on the same general objectives—developing better understanding and fellowship among business and professional men, promoting community-betterment undertakings, raising the standards of business and professions, and fostering the advancement of good will, understanding and peace among all the peoples of the world.

Rains during the past week gave firemen a big assist in extinguishing the forest fire which raged in Hyde and Dare counties. Foresters report the flames are now practically extinct.

45 Candidates Out For Football Drill

Coach Ike Perry conducted the first football practice of the season Thursday of last week with some 45 candidates trying out for the 1957 Perquimans Indians squad. The drill was devoted entirely to physical exercises to prepare the boys for more strenuous practice to come later.

Speaking of the prospects for the 1957 Indian football machine, Coach Perry said, "we really have a fine bunch of boys out for practice. The number will grow because several veterans have yet to report. The boys are showing a splendid attitude for the early workouts."

The coach will need to replace four holes in the right line due to losses by graduation. However, the rest of the starting team will be ready to go.

Several of the Perquimans County 4-Hers won honors in achievements during 4-H Camp at Manteo last week. They camped with Green, Martin and Alleghany counties.

Mary Ellen Edwards of Hertford won the award for getting the most autographs. There were 99 campers and she got 69 autographs. Diana McDonnell of Durants Neck won the junior swimming award. This award was based on cooperation as well as skill. Carol McDonnell of Durants Neck won the senior swimming award for the girls and Carson Spivey, Jr., of Rt. 3, Hertford, won the senior swimming award for the boys.

Betty Brown of Hertford was declared talent winner of the 4-H Talent Contest, when she gave a pantomime "If You Don't Know." She was also Mistress of Ceremonies for the banquet which climaxed the week's events.

Carol McDonnell had the leading role in the Vesper program. This particular Vesper program took place out of doors. This was a most impressive ceremony with the 4-Hers dressed in white in front of a background of pines, a lighted cross and the water.

"The 23 delegates that attended from Perquimans County were an unusually well rounded group, and they cooperated enthusiastically in all activities."

The rest of the starting team will be ready to go.
