Julian C. Powell, Perquimans County Tax Supervisor, today reminded property owners that only 13 days remain for listing property for 1958 taxes. He urged all property owners, who as yet have not listed their property to do so immediately in order to avoid the usual last minute rush for the annual task.

A schedule of hours for the township tax listers will be found elsewhere in the issue of this newspaper for the convenience of property owners wishing to list their property.

CHRISTIAN WORKERS SCHOOL PLANNED JAN. 28-28

The Christian Community" by Ferguson. It is not intended for young people, however. Mrs. Odum has been Conference Secretary of Youth Work of the Women's Society for two terms, Conference Secretary of Missionary Personnel for the Women's Society, and is now President of the Fayetteville District of the Women's Society of Christian Service. She has served as counselor at religious camps for young people, and on the North Carolina Conference Committee on Christian Vocations, as well as many other activities with young people.

The course on "Home and Church Cooperating in Children's Work" is an outstanding course for persons who work with children in the church. It is intended to familiarize both parents and teachers with the work of the church with children and the cooperation necessary between the home and the church. Mrs. Queen is the wife of the Rev. V. E. Queen, pastor of Duke Memorial Church, Durham. She has had wide experience with children as public school and kindergarten teacher, and is temporary Conference Director of Children's Work for the Methodist Church. Mrs. Queen resided in Hertford for four years. Her course is a popular one and valuable to both parents and church workers equally. It is not a course for children, however. of all ages and Mr. Joyce's course Mrs. Brown's course on "Understanding the Bible" is for persons adults.
