LIBRARY NEWS

Non-fiction, again this week, heads the list of new books received in the Perquimans County Library. They are: 'A Treasury of Friendship,' compiled by Woods, follows his two popular earlier collections, 'A Treasury of Inspiration and Treasury of the Familiar; The Family Book of Humor; How I Overcame My Fear of Public Speaking; Our Christian Symbols; and Christian Symbolism in Evangelical Churches. Also new is Betty Smith's new novel, 'Maggie Now;' and books by Eric Stanley Gardner and Max Brand.

The February 4-H County Council met Thursday, February 13, at the Agricultural Building with 30 members present. The devotional and program was planned by Susan Nixon. Rachel Bass gave a reading and Carolyn Willis led the group in prayer. Judy Reed pantomimed two records, 'Good Ole Fashion Girl' and 'Goodbye John.' The Hertford sixth grade won the attendance banner with 28 present.

A report was given in the sale of the Perquimans County car tags. Many 4-H members are still trying to sell the remaining 80 tags.

A committee report was made by President Billy Hudson concerning the Barbecue Chicken Supper. The plans were made Wednesday, February 12 at a committee meeting.

It was announced that National 4-H Club Week will be celebrated March 1-8. Various activities are being planned to be used during that week. Each local club is urged to make posters and have well-planned programs for the observance of the important week.

After the meeting Harriette Williams led the game, 'Planting Trees.'

Yet No Protection

"Why are you standing there throwing stones at that poor little boy?"

"Because I don't go any closer, miss. He's got whooping cough."

THE POWER OF PRAYER

Will Oursler tells about many groups throughout the country that are meeting, often daily, to pray together. This famous author reveals how praying together helps people live better, more rewarding lives in.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The S and M Pharmacy in its effort of working for better Community Health is very happy to announce that they have been designated as a poison control center for this area. As a poison control center we have on file more than 16,000 commercial preparations with new ones being added as they appear on the consumer market. In the event a member of your family should ingest a preparation of which its toxicity is in question, we urge you to check with us as to whether or not the preparation is harmful. We will give you emergency instructions if the product is harmful and will try to locate your physician for you, so the victim will have the attention necessary. Finally we will determine the amount of the harmful ingredient ingested by its per cent concentration in the preparation in question, and have this information ready to relay to your physician, to save him the time necessary to determine this. In this way he can start his life-saving treatment immediately, which is very important.

We think that this is a very important contribution to better community health and are very pleased to render this public service.

Our phone number is 8081 and we stand ready to serve you.
