MADE AT WOODVILLE

She carried a cascade of pink feathered carnations. Bobby Ray Spence of Woodville, cousin of the bride, and Brenda Lovitt of Virginia Beach, niece of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. Their ballerina length gowns were of white tulle over pink tulle. The bridesmaids wore pink tulle headpieces and carried pink feathered carnations and blue delphinium. John L. Winslow was best man for his stepson. Ushers were Hurley Gregory, uncle of the bride, and Eugene Bright, brother of the bridegroom. Mrs. Graham Wood, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Marvin Lovitt, sister of the bridegroom, acted as mistresses of the ceremony. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Gregory chose a street length dress of rosewood lace over tulle accented with rhinestones. Her accessories were white and she wore an orchid corsage. Mrs. Winslow, mother of the bridegroom, wore a street length dress of blue lace over tulle with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

For traveling the bride wore a light blue dress of pure silk with white accessories and the orchid lifted from her bridal bouquet. After the ceremony the bride and bridegroom left for a wedding trip south. On Saturday evening following the rehearsal the wedding party was entertained at a cake cutting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Graham Wood. The bridal table was covered with a cut-work cloth. A three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, a white floral arrangement in a silver bowl and burning white tapers in silver candleabra were used on the table. Mrs. Marvin Lovitt presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Evelyn Craig served the cake. Nuts and mints were also served the guests. The bride and bridegroom-elect presented gifts of jewelry to their attendants. The couple was feted on several occasions prior to this. On Monday evening their Sunday School class entertained them and presented them gifts of rags and linens. On Tuesday evening they were entertained at a floating shower by Mrs. E. C. Spruill, Mrs. W. B. Whitley and Mrs. G. E. Wood, and on Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Maston and Thomas

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Keel announce the engagement of their daughter, Iris Jean, to Edward Lewis Sadler, of Suffolk, Va., son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Sadler. A September wedding is planned.

You need vitamins in summer, too!

Yes, you need vitamins all year round—summer or winter, spring or fall. And, actually, we may be more likely to miss getting all the vitamins we need in the summertime. Our diets change. Many of us lose our appetites in summer's heat and miss important vitamins. For this reason, our pharmacy is running its special Summer Vitamin Event. Come in and ask us about vitamins, today!
