Special guests at the event included Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. thews, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Gibbs and wives of the members of the organization. Two past members, J. Emory White and Henry Stokes, Jr., were also guests for the occasion.

Warren Twiddy of Edenton, district vice president of the Jay-cees, as guest speaker spoke Soil Supervisors briefly on the accomplishments projects which will be undertaken during the coming year.

Following his remarks, Mr. Twiddy then presented to William C. Elliott the Jaycee plaque for being the Perguimans County Outstanding Young Farmer of the Year. Elliott is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Freeland Elliott of Route one; he is married to the former Miss Joyce Sumner and they have one child. Billy and his father farm about 300 acres of land and feed some 175 head of market hogs. He and his father were among the first farmers of the county to air dry peanuts; this experiment is proving very successful. He holds an American Farmer Degree for his work in FFA and is superintendent of the Great Hope Baptist Church Sunday School.

Mr. Twiddy then made the and citation to the Outstanding Young Man of the Year for distinguished community service.

The 1959 award went to John Beers who was selected by a group of judges with the selection based upon information contained upon nomination blanks submitted by various individuals and civic organizations.

Mr Beers is married to the former Miss Betty Jean Winslow and they have two children They reside in Woodland Circle, Hertford. His selection for the honor was made for his outstanding work in the community as a leader of the local Boy Scout Troop, as a member of the Hertford Volunteer Fire Department; for diligent effort given toward ing. the development and operation of the Ground Observer Corps durog its operation here, and for work with the youth of the community in promoting ath-letics. He is also a Sunday School teacher at Hertford Methodist Church. He is parts department manager at Winslow-Blanchard Motor Company.
