4-H Members Hold Copper Workshop
 A copper enameling workshop was held by 4-H Club members at the Agricultural Building on November 24-25. 4-H Club members made earrings, cuff links, pins and other jewelry. The process of enameling, creating a design, firing and cleaning copper was a new experience for many of the girls. Learning to use the kiln and other tools taught the girls new skills.
 According to Assistant Home Economics Agent Ila Grey McRwean, workshops will be held at a later date for other 4-H'ers.
