feverfew, daisies, gladioli and Queen Anne's lace.
 Mr. and Mrs. Maston and J. W. Ward greeted the guests on the front porch. Mrs. Ward introduced the guests to the receiving line, composed of Mrs. Harry Barber Brown of Elizabeth City, Mr. and Mrs. Julian A. White, Jr., Miss Ellen Brown, White, Jr., the bridegroom-to-be, and Mrs. Preston Nixon, presented their 4-H Dairy Foods Demonstration to the group. Many milk favors were given and the girls encouraged the use of more milk and milk products in the diet during "June Dairy Month" and throughout the year.

Following the Dairy Foods Demonstration, Mrs. Underwood, discussed weight control; slides were shown, illustrating the seven most common reasons people are overweight. In addition, the slides showed why people do not reduce and stressed that exercise and resistance would help most.

In conclusion, the Home Agent encouraged members to learn the fabric and nutritive value of foods. She stated, "Get the facts about overweight and then act!" The meeting was turned over to the president after the discussion which followed the slides. The Club Collect was repeated after the hostess served pie, ice cream and drinks.

CLUB MEETS
 The Busy Bee 4-H Community Club held its June meeting on Monday night with 10 members present and two adult leaders. The meeting was called to order by the president, Billy Winslow. The pledges of allegiance were repeated by the club members. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. All joined together in singing "Onward Christian Soldiers" and an interesting devotion, "Known By Our Fruits," taken from Matthew 7:15-20, was given by Carolyn Faye Rogerson.

During the business session it was decided that the club would have its bake sale later on. Also the club would not have another meeting during the summer, but would have a picnic at Sandy Point Beach with the club members and their families.

The club did not have a demonstration for the June meeting. Recreation was the topic for the night. Games and fun conducted by Carolyn Faye Rogerson were enjoyed by all.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Rogerson, Jr.

The Helen Gaith Home Demonstration Club met at the Agricultural Building last Thursday night for the regular monthly meeting. Mrs. Colon Jackson and Mrs. Ed Harrell were co-hostesses. Mrs. Jackson gave the de-
