

Senator Sam Ervin, R-S.C., was elected to Congress, serving in the House from 1933 until 1935. His first service in the United States Senate commenced on March 4, 1937, continuing until his resignation on November 20, 1968. Rising as a national figure, Ervin received the electoral votes of neighboring South Carolina for President of the United States in 1957. Upon the resignation of Senator Richard Russell, he was selected as a Whig in the United States Senate, serving from November 25, 1959 to March 3, 1963. Like

Only a few days remain until Christmas and there are still house cleaning jobs to be done, gifts to buy and preparations to be made for the friends that will be dropping by.
 Miss Jola Pritchard, food conservation specialist for the N. C. Agricultural Extension Service, suggests that you give of yourself along with your gift this year. "What could be a better and more acceptable way of making someone happy than to give some jars of delicious home canned foods," says Miss Pritchard. "There are probably many families on your list who were unable to conserve any food this year and would welcome some relish, pickles, preserves, an extension telephone in color

Here's the happy answer to any family's Christmas gift problem. A den telephone for Dad, or an extension telephone in the kitchen or bedroom for Mother. All telephone calls really appreciate the convenience and privacy of an extension telephone in their own bedrooms. So this year, give the really modern gift that says so much... extension telephones in color.

SEASON'S GREETINGS

Through two thousand years of wars, oppression and changing times, the kind's continuing faith has always begun at this door. It is here, within this door that the simple teachings of the Christ of Nazareth are passed to each succeeding generation.

As once again we celebrate His birth, we extend to you our best wishes with the hope that the spirit of Peace and Love be yours truly and in all the days to come.
