

Sponsoring Committee Meets

There was a splendid meeting held at the agent's office on Monday, January 14 at 7 P. M. Who was it? Why the Hertford-Highway 17 4-H Sponsoring Committee, that's who.

The meeting was opened by our president, J. W. Collins, and devotion was led by the agricultural agent, Negro work. The assistant secretary, Percell Skinner, obliged us with the minutes and roll call. Mrs. Mary Holley, treasurer, gave the treasury report, after which the president called for old business.

The home economic Extension agent, Negro work, urged the leaders to see that their 4-H members complete their project enrollment and selection cards, along with the monthly guides for 1963, by the end of this month. The agricultural Extension agent, Negro work, again explained the cucumber project, showing wherein it would be a very interesting and beneficial one for everyone who participated in it. It seems as if the Hertford and Highway 17 4-H leaders are interested in this project and are putting the idea to their members who will, if interested enough, raise some cucumbers this spring as a 4-H Club project. This will, in turn, stimulate 4-H Club work and aid 4-H Club members in taking part in more of the activities, such as camp, short course, picnics, 4-H uniforms, state fair educational tour, etc.

Following old business, the agents then urged leaders to select participants to take part in the 4-H poultry chain project, junior enriched corn meal activities and the king and queen health contest. Another project which was brought before the group was the milk drinking contest, led by the foods and nutrition leader in the Hertford community, Mrs. Mary Foreman. She urged everyone to take out some milk pledges this month. She, along with the other foods and nutrition leaders, is doing a splendid job with the pledges.

We had some of our project leaders present: Mrs. Viola Lloyd, sewing; Mrs. Edna Davis, cooking; Mrs. James J. Reed, Jr., they received project record books for their members and selected dates to meet them. The groups will meet as follows: Electric project group, Monday, January 21 at 7:30 P. M.; sewing project group, Monday, January 28 at 7:30 P. M.; cooking project group, Tuesday, January 29 at 6 P. M. All groups are asked to please be present at their designated times.

Members present were J. W. Collins, Percell Skinner, William O. Creech, G. W. James, Jr., Mrs. Mary Foreman, Mrs. Mary Holley, Mrs. Viola Lloyd, Mrs. Willie O. Harvey, Mrs. Anna Holley and Mrs. Elaine Skinner.

BRIDGE PARTY

Mrs. F. A. McGoogan was hostess at a Bridge Party, Monday night at her home. Those playing were Mesdames: Biggers, Vivian Mathews, L. Harris, Pete Thompson, B. E. Reed, Jr., Francis Nixon, Mrs. Helene Nixon and the hostess. The high score prize was awarded Mrs. Thompson and second high was awarded Miss Nixon. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Archie Shannonhouse Men's Club Speaker

The Methodist Men of the Perquimans Charge met at Oak Grove Church Monday night, January 21.

Archie Shannonhouse, Certified Lay Speaker of Riverside Methodist Church in Elizabeth City, brought an inspiring message on world missions, referring especially to activities around the rim of Asia.

The devotional was led by Jesse Bovee with Bryan Miller as pianist. Thomas Hollowell, past president, presided.

A delicious dinner was served by the WSCS of the church. Elmer Miller closed the meeting with prayer.

MARY LONG CIRCLE MEETS

The Mary Long Circle of Bethel Baptist Church met Monday night at the home of Mrs. William Tarkenton. The meeting was opened with all singing "We've A Story To Tell To The Nations," followed by all repeating the Watchword, Mrs. Charles Ward gave a very interesting program on "Christian Witnessing." She had devotional with Mrs. Chandler leading in prayer. Those taking part on program were Mrs. Emmett Long, Mrs. Edgar Long and Mrs. Charlie Appleton. Mrs. Julian Long closed the program with prayer.

Reports were given; community mission plans were made to visit shut-ins. A Biblical contest was enjoyed with Mrs. Julian Long winning the prize.

The hostess served cake, ice cream and coffee to the 12 members present.
