

Home Agent Speaks At Club Meeting

Mrs. White, home economics demonstration agent, says, "Club work has changed as other clubs have changed but the basic principles of Home Demonstration work remain the same." She also said "Most important of all, in Home Demonstration work, is the club member."

"Know your year book" was Mrs. White's topic for the month. She explained the Home Demonstration organization emblem, which is found on the front of our club yearbook. She explained our creed, how the organization is set up and named its affiliations.

The Home Demonstration organization is an educational program and planned to assist the homemaker in making better homes for their families. Since the first sentence in our creed, "Today's Home Builds Tomorrow's World," we should strive to establish our homes according to that belief.

The meeting was called to order by our president, Mrs. Colon Jackson. "O Master Let Me Walk With Thee," our song for the month, was sung. Mrs. Fred Mathews gave the devotional taken from the 24th Psalm. Mrs. Warner Moore led in prayer.

A short business meeting was conducted. Fourteen members were present and they paid their annual club dues to Mrs. Dick Brewer, secretary and treasurer.

Three committee reports were heard. Mrs. Vera Batton reported on the Estelle T. Smith fund available to young women in the county. Mrs. Fred Mathews explained the Julia F. Cuyler music scholarships and Mrs. Warner Madre explained the education program.

Plans were discussed for our covered dish supper in February, which will be a joint meeting and will be at the Agriculture Building.

The hostess, Mrs. Fred Mathews, served delicious refreshments.

The meeting was adjourned by repeating the club collect.

Busy Bee 4-H Club Meets At Belvidere

The Busy Bee 4-H Club met at Belvidere Community Building January 15, 1963. The president, Tim Riddick, called the meeting to order. The pledge of allegiance and 4-H pledge were repeated. Carol White was in charge of the devotion. Daisy Griffin read some Scripture from the Bible and Pauline Lamb led in prayer.

Emily Jane White, acting secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting and the roll was called with 20 present. Thelma Rogerson and Thelma Riddick gave a demonstration on How To Write A Check. Recreation leader, Dianne Layden, led in some games and afterwards refreshments were served and enjoyed by all.

4-H Health Record Books were collected following which the meeting was dismissed.

BURGESS WMU MEETS

The Burgess WMU held its January meeting at the home of Mrs. Earl Riddick Monday, January 14, at 7:30. The meeting was opened by singing the hymn "We've A Story To Tell To The Nations," followed by The Lord's Prayer.

Minutes were read and approved. The roll was called with 16 members present. Final plans for a visit to the Morgan Rest Home on January 21 at 7 o'clock were made. Treats for each patient were planned.

Mrs. Joseph Ayscue presented the program on Christian Witnessing. The meeting was closed with the Watchword.

The hostess served nuts and strawberry shortcake topped with whipped cream.
