

Christine Perry White Bride Of Erik Tang Jorgensen

Christine Perry White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Newby White of Glenwood Landing, was married on February 9 at 8 o'clock in the evening to Erik Tang Jorgensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Tang Jorgensen of East Norwalk, at the Presbyterian Church of Glenwood Landing.

The Rev. Robert S. Boston officiated at the candlelight ceremony.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a gown of white antique satin, with an applique of Alencon lace scattered with seed pearl embroidery and palmettes, and a long chapel train. Her French imported illusion veil was attached to a crown of pearls and she carried a bouquet of white orchids.

Miss Janet White, sister of the bride, was maiden of honor while Mrs. Tom Warrick, Mrs. Thomas McAllister, Miss Penny Voorhes, Mrs. Peter Tremblay and Miss Lois Nyberg acted as bridesmaids. These attendants wore floor length gowns of American Beauty satin with matching crowns and carried bouquets of red flowers attached to white fur muffs.

Mark Jorgensen, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The ushers were Nat White, Jr., Peter Tremblay, Ralph Oeben, Azby Crouteau and Tang Jorgensen. The men of the wedding party were attired in white tie and tails.

The mother of the bride wore a pale pink satin floor length gown with matching accessories and a corsage of white orchids. The mother of the bridegroom wore an avocado-green satin gown with gold accessories and bronze orchids.

"The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte and Bolin's "Salve to the Night" were sung by Donald Sheldon, the soloist, accompanied by DeLorman Bartel, the organist. Mrs. Robert Boston acted as mistress of ceremony.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Strathmore Vanderbilt Country Club in Manhasset. The bride and bridegroom were toasted with champagne while the orchestra provided music for dancing throughout the evening.

The bride was assisted in dressing in her going away outfit by Mrs. Edward Davis.

In this era of world wars, in this atomic age, values have changed. We must discover security within ourselves.

Larger Turkey Crop Predicted

Based on reports as of January 1, North Carolina turkey growers intend to produce 2,460,000 turkeys during 1963. The 1963 intentions represent a 5 per cent, or 115,000 bird increase from last year's production of 2,345,000 birds. Indications are that this year's crop would be made up of 2,452,000 heavy breeds and 8,000 of the lighter breeds. Production of the heavier breeds would be 5 per cent larger than the 2,307,000 produced last year while no change is expected in the production of the light breeds.
