High School Wins In Drama Contest

The play, "A Maiden's Prayer" by Robert Finch, presented by the Dramatics Club of Perquimans County Union School under the direction of Mrs. J. L. Privott and Mrs. M. W. Strowd, was selected as the best performance given at the North Carolina Drama Association State finals held at Ligon High School in Raleigh on March 15 and 16.

John Thatch, a tenth grader, who played the part of "Mr. Curruthers" in the play, received the character award for the best actor of the festival. Other members of the cast who were cited for their excellent performance were Martha Brothers, Magnolia Lilly, Joyce Bonner, and George Reid.

The theme for the drama festival was "Educational Theatre as a means of Academic Excellence."

The schools participating in the state festival presented winning plays from the Eastern, the Northeastern and the Western Regions of North Carolina. A total of twenty one-act plays were included during the two-day festival.

The critic judge was Mrs. Mary Lyman, an actress of the Raleigh Little Theater. She has a profound background in the art of drama which includes a major in English from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. She studied at the American Academy of Dramatic Arts in New York and did graduate study at Columbia University in New York.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS

The Ladies' Missionary Society of Berea Church of Christ held its March meeting at the church Friday at 7:30. The public was invited to hear their guest speakers from Poland, George Dajenski and Kostek Jakoniuk are attending Eastern Christian College in Maryland preparing themselves to go back to their native land in one more year and there to give the message of Christ to so many who are anxious to hear. These boys both spoke for a short time each and told of the hardships they and others have had behind the iron curtain pertaining to religious works. Their talks were enjoyed by all present.

Refreshments were served after the meeting to approximately 100 guests.
