

THE PER-CO-HI SPECTATOR

By BECKY FELTON AND COOKY DOZIER

The cast for the senior play has been selected by Mrs. Penton Britt, dramatics director. W. E. Byrum and Mrs. Lewis Stallings. They are Verna Perry, Betty Barbee, Carolyn Rogersen, Becky Felton, Philip Lane, Vicki Rosch, Jimmy Bonner, Mary Ella Nixon, Harry Winslow and Charles Eley. The play will be presented April 29.

A safety program, demonstrating careful driving, was presented to the student body Tuesday. Perquimans' baseball team defeated Chowan 5-0. Perquimans met Plymouth on Tuesday for the first conference game of the season.

The first track meet of the season was held Wednesday afternoon with Perquimans, Gates and Edenton participating.

Winslow - Jones Vows Exchanged

The marriage of Grace Lorayne Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jordan of Elizabeth City and Otho Iverson Winslow, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. O. I. Winslow, Sr., of Belvidere, was solemnized at the Pentecostal Holiness Church with Dr. Sigbee L. Miller hearing the wedding vows.

White gladiolus and palms were used for church decorations and Mrs. Preston Meads played the wedding music.

The bride chose a dress of pale blue fashioned with lace bodice and full skirt of blue taffeta with lace accents. She wore a white pill box, harmonizing accessories and carried a white Bible topped with a purple throat-rod orchid.

Mrs. Floyd Brickhouse of Elizabeth City was the bride's attendant. She wore a beige dress similar to that of the bride, brown accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. William Bundy was mis-stress of the ceremony. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Jordan wore a beige suit with harmonizing accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The bride's parents entertained at a reception in the social hall of the church following the ceremony.

Observe Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Cartwright, Hertford, Route 3, were guests of honor at an open house given by their family Sunday, March 10, in celebration of their golden wedding anniversary at their home.

Guests who called from 2 until 5 o'clock were greeted at the door by Mrs. Lela Mae Winslow, a niece, who presented them to the receiving line, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Cartwright, Miss Lucille Cartwright and Mrs. Ruby C. Sawyer.

The house was beautifully decorated with yellow mums, glads and daffodils. A beautiful linen fluted lace tablecloth was used on the dining table. The guests were registered by a grandson, Jimmy Sawyer. The gifts were opened and displayed by Mr. and Mrs. Martin Sawyer, a grandson. Mrs. Eleanor Wood, a niece, invited the guests into the dining room for refreshments.

The honored couple received many lovely gifts.

Approximately 85 guests called to extend congratulations and good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Cartwright.

The house was beautifully read the Scripture. Peggy Jennings sang "The Lord Is My Shepherd." Mrs. Bateman led the club in prayer. Tildon Whitehurst and Kenneth Bateman sang "The Beverly Hillbillies." Missouri Bateman called the roll and read the minutes of the last meeting. The president asked for old and new business. They elected a new president, Elizabeth Ivy.

Mrs. Toni Twiford gave an interesting demonstration on "How To Conduct A 4-H Meeting." Then the meeting was adjourned. Refreshments were served by Tildon Whitehurst.
