

Officers Installed For 1963-64 For Grammar School

The Hertford Grammar School PTA held its final meeting of the 1962-63 school year on Thursday night at 8 o'clock with Mrs. Charles Murray, president, presiding.

Mrs. Fred Still gave a most inspiring devotion, with Scripture reading from Proverbs 6:20-22, after which she gave some very interesting comments on an article entitled "Lord Education."

Mrs. Charles Murray, president, presided over the business meeting. The secretary, Mrs. Emory White, read the minutes of the last meeting. They stood approved as read. Reports were heard from the following committee chairmen: Mrs. Bill Williams, treasurer, reported a balance on hand of $1,244.76. Mrs. Fred Still, study course chairman, reported on the last half of the study course held at Winfall April 17. She expressed her disappointment in the small number present and asked if anyone had any ideas on a study course to please contact the new president. Mrs. Lester Keel, magazine chairman, announced that the PTA had received the President's Citation for having 20 or more subscriptions to the PTA magazine.

Motion was made and seconded that the PTA pay $800 toward a new refrigerator for the school kitchen.

Mrs. Charles Murray, in behalf of the PTA, presented Miss Thelma Elliott a life time membership certificate and pin to the North Carolina Congress of Parent and Teachers Association.

J. T. Biggers, superintendent congratulated the president and other officers for the work they have accomplished. He also announced everyone entering school next fall, from the first grade through the senior class must have all five immunization shots before they can enter. He stated all parents will receive a notice concerning this in the near future.

Miss Elliott announced the preschool clinic will be held in May with the exact date being announced later.

Mrs. Charles Murray installed the following officers for the 1963-64 school year: President, Mrs. Marion Riddick; vice president, Mrs. Dan Berry; secretary, Mrs. Emory White; treasurer, Mrs. Bill Williams. Mrs. Murray then turned the meeting over to Mrs. Marion Riddick.

Mrs. Riddick announced the following committee chairmen for the 1963-64 school year: Program, Mrs. Alva Bunch; shrubbery, Mrs. George Byrum; room representative, Mrs. Keith Haskett; legislature, James Everett Newby; safety, Mrs. Edward Waters; health, Clinton Ray Winslow; kitchen, Mrs. Durwood Reed and Mrs. Emmett Landing; hospitality, Mrs. Phillip Thach; publicity, Mrs. Walter Harrison; magazine, Mrs. Lester Keel; membership, Mrs. Grace Coston; finance, Henry Stokes; newspaper, Mrs. Lloyd Lane and Mrs. Wallace Hobbs; study course, Mrs. Edward Waters; dance, Mrs.

Engaged

Eleanor Cecelia Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Williams of Route 1, Hertford, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Eleanor Cecelia Williams, to William Henry Garrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Garrett of Edenton. The wedding is being planned for the 26th of May, 1963.

Willis Jessup, the hospitality chairman reported 125 to register, with Mrs. E. C. Woodard's combination first and second grade winning the attendance banner.

Refreshments were served in the library following the meeting.

Mrs. Jeanette Dail Dies At Tyner Home

Mrs. Jeanette M. Dail, 83, died at her home at Tyner Thursday morning at 4:50 o'clock after several months' illness. She was a native of Chowan County.

Surviving are five sons, William Dail and Charles Dail of Tyner and George Dail, Edward Dail and James Dail of Norfolk; four daughters, Mrs. William Burum of Suffolk, Mrs. Howard Copeland of Winfall and Mrs. Johnnie Hollowell and Mrs. Raleigh Perry of Hertford; a brother, Riley Monds; a sister, Mrs. Susan Lane of Tyner; 2 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

She was a member of Cente Hill Baptist Church, where a funeral service was held Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Rev. Henry Napier officiated and burial was in the family cemetery at Tyner.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Continued from Page Four offers no chart for governments or peoples. He offers, instead that which made his life confident and rich; a fellowship with God, his shepherd, his refuge, a very present help in the midst of trouble. Regardless of circumstances, painful or not, we are ever secure in God's love for us, in ours for him, and in the certainty of the eternal worth of his purpose for us. This is true security; this is the message of Psalms. Work On Winfall School To Begin Soon

Six elementary schools of Perquimans will be consolidated when the new $40-

000 school plant, work on which will begin within the next few weeks, is built at Winfall, and at Belvidere, where for more than a century was located the seat of learning for the Albemarle, the old Belvidere Academy, there will be no school.

Plans for the Winfall school, the consolidated school, are going forward, and arrangements were made for the purchase of a plot of ground of seven acres on which to locate the plant. The property is located almost opposite the present school building, on the west side of the main highway between Winfall and Hertford. Probably nine teachers will be employed at this school.

Many Join Clean Politics Group

H. G. Winslow, who is sponsoring the Clean Politics movement in Perquimans, reports a very satisfactory response on the part of Perquimans voters. Mr. Winslow offered the pledge cards for signatures on Saturday of last week, and by Tuesday noon a large number of voters had signed the cards, pledging to discourage in every way possible the hiring of workers by candidates for office in Perquimans and the hiring of automobiles for hauling voters to the polls on the day of the primary or election, and the use of money or other things of value to influence votes for or against any candidate for office in Perquimans who engages in these practices or uses any unfair means whatsoever.

Garage Announces Service 24 Hours
