

Judy Benton Weds Paul Reading

Hobbsville Baptist Church was the scene Sunday, June 2, at 3 o'clock of the marriage of Miss Judy Canova Benton to Paul Oehler Reading, Jr.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Sherlock Benton of Route 1, Belvidere and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Oehler Reading, Sr., of Concord.

The Rev. J. Leonard Gerrald, pastor of the bride, heard the vows in a candlelight setting of chrysanthemums, gladioli and palms.

Elwood Copeland, pianist, presented a program of nuptial music and accompanied Jerry White who sang "O Promise Me," "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and as a benediction "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a bridal gown of imported satin peau de soie fashioned with an elongated bodice featuring a round neckline with alencon lace appliques embedded with seed pearls with long sleeves ending in wedding points over the hands. The gown extended into a bustled back, billowing into a soft chapel train. Her three-tiered veil of silk illusion fell from a pleated tulle pouffe delicately touched with pearls. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a white prayer book topped with a Royal Bouquet of white orchids, stephanotis and satin streamers.

Miss Mary Ella Smith of Hertford was maid of honor. She wore a full length gown of yellow taffeta, designed with round neckline, brief sleeves, ball skirt featuring back panel fashioned into a bustle. She carried a single long stem yellow carnation.

Bridesmaids were Miss Bonnie Benton, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Jimmy Stallings of Hertford. They wore gowns identical to that of the honor attendant of Nile green and carried a single long stem carnation.

The ringbearer was little Allen Hobbs, cousin of the bride, and carried the ring on a satin pillow.

Peggy Lynn Benton, sister of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a floor length gown of chiffon over taffeta with a draped skirt. She carried a basket of flowers.

The bridegroom's father was best man and groomsmen were Joe Andrews and Joseph Cagle of Concord, cousins of the bride.
