The theme for the week was "Education—Continuing Personal Development and Growth." It was devoted to help 4-H Club boys and girls understand some of the practical applications for self-improvement. It also presented ideas and facts about trends and some implications for them.

The week featured special guest speakers: David Schenck, Mayor of Greensboro, N. C.; Dr. L. C. Dowdy, acting President of A. and T. College; Dr. R. L. Johnston, Ext. Farm Management—N. C. State College; Mrs. M. M. Brown, Ext. Asst. State Home Economics Agent; Dr. Selz Mayo, Head, Rural Sociology Department, N. C. State College; James E. Tilipaki, manager of Greensboro Employment Security Commission of N. C.; Mrs. G. F. White, Instructor of A. and T. College; Miss Doris Jones, School Librarian, Hamlet, N. C.; Dr. Rudolph Artis, Professor of Elizabeth City Teachers College; R. E. Jones, Extension State Agent; the Rev. James A. Cannon, Director of Westminister Foundation; L. R. The week also featured Talent Program, Dress Revue and a State 4-H Dance. During each day, classes were held from 10:30 A. M. until 12:00 noon. The classes offered this year were: "What To Wear Where," "Community 4-H Club Work," "Career Exploration," and the "Value of Reading in Personal Development." The 4-H delegation was divided into four groups—Head, Heart, Hands and Health. Each group rotated in attending classes.

The State Demonstration contest was held Thursday of this week. Henry Felton and John Thatch represented this county and won second place. They gave a very good demonstration on peanuts. Sandra D. Wildbee represented the county in the State Dress Revue contest and won second place. The election for the State 4-H Council was held Wednesday. Deloris Creech ran for the State Secretary and won her victory. She was installed in a special candle lighting ceremony on Friday night.

The delegates from the county were active in all of the activities during the week. The agents were proud of the county delegation and are looking forward to a larger group for another year.

The blue ribbon demonstration winners will now compete in a statewide contest at 4-H Club Week to be held in Raleigh July 22 through 27. From this contest state winners will be picked. Those who plan to compete would welcome the opportunity to perform their demonstration before any gathering desiring to see it. If you would like to have these demonstrations put on, contact us here at the County Extension office, further states Mr. Brown.

The poultry team will go to the 4-H Club Week by means of a scholarship donated by the Albemarle Chemical Company.

To add to the already long list of laurels of Perquimans County, Beth Hardie was elected as the District 4-H president for the coming year.

but $100 is still needed to complete paying for these uniforms.

Next Saturday morning, July 6, a bake sale will be held in the Court House plaza at 10 A. M. All parents are urged to bring cakes, cookies or pies to the cake booth, join the fun, stay awhile and help sell both the baked goods and our teams to the people of Hertford.

Any other folks interested in this program are also invited to send cakes, buy cakes, or otherwise donate to this worthwhile activity. The teams will be there in uniform. Come and see them. Also come out to their games, which are played every Saturday and Wednesday at 2 P. M. You'll be glad you did.
