

Howard Mathews Weds in S. C.

The bride's father officiated at the wedding in Walterboro, S. C., Saturday of Miss Helen Jean Coggin in First Baptist Church.

Howard Blount Mathews, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mathews of Hertford.

There was a reception at the church afterwards, given by the bride's parents, the Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Coggin.

The Rev. William M. Jones assisted in the marriage ceremony.

Attendants were Miss Emily Coggin, sister of the bride, who was maid of honor and the following bridesmaids, Miss Anita Coggin, another sister of the bride, Miss Susan Hall of Wilmington, Del., Miss Mary Jo Harris of Old Fort, N. C., Miss Julia Byrd of Newton Grove, N. C., Miss Linda Pittman of Mooresville, N. C., Mrs. James Scharf of Durham, N. C., Mrs. Charles Reaves of Bute Creek, N. C., and Mrs. Larry Scharf.

Mr. Mathews was his son's best man, Bobby Mathews of Durham, N. C., and Herky Ledbetter and Carroll Leggett of Bute Creek ushered with the bride's brother, Woody Coggin, Warren Gay of Richmond, Va., Tom Wood of Holland, Va., and Abbie Lucas and Jack Young.

Flower girls were Miss Bonnie Hollowell of Walstonburg, N. C., niece of the bridegroom, and Miss Kathy Smith.

The Rev. Mr. Coggin also gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a formal gown of peau de soie and chantilly lace and a Swedish crown of lace and pearls to which a fingertip veil was attached.

headquarters of the detachment." Later in the same report it is set forth: "We reached Portsmouth at 12 noon, having been gone for four days, capturing 10 prisoners, seven horses (used to convey the prisoners), six cattle and 16 bales of cotton." It would appear from the small number of horses taken by the expedition that many of the farmers of Perquimans were as successful as was Exum Winslow in hiding their horses.

REHEARSAL PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Reed entertained at a reception held in the lower floor of the Baptist Church Saturday night following the wedding rehearsal for the Reed-Sloop wedding party and friends. The table was lovely with a three-tiered wedding cake, punch, cake, mints and nuts were served.

Mrs. Cameron Boyce of Center Hill cut the cake and Mrs. Billy Cherry served the punch, assisted by Mrs. Ann Copeland and Mrs. Carlton Cannon.

Billie Ann Reed Weds W. G. Sloop

The marriage of Miss Billie Ann Reed and William Grover Sloop was solemnized Sunday afternoon in the Hertford Baptist Church. The Rev. Norman B. Harris officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Corpew Reed and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. James Francis Sloop of Mooresville.

Mr. Reed gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown was fashioned of lace over white satin embroidered in seed pearls. Her veil extended from a headpiece of rose design with pearls. She carried a white Bible centered with a purple throated orchid.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Kitty Reed, who wore a yellow organdy dress with scalloped embroidery. She carried a bouquet of fuji mums. James Sloop, Jr., was his brother's best man and the ushers were Bobby Reed, brother of the bride, Freddie Combs, Francis Combs and Lloyd Baker Byrum.

Mrs. Steve Hopkins was soloist and Mrs. J. Ellie White rendered the wedding music.

The bride's mother wore a blue embroidery dress with white accessories; the bridegroom's mother wore a blue eyelet dress with white accessories, both wearing corsages of pink carnations.

Mrs. Jack Kandy, cousin of the bride, was mistress of ceremony.

Following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Reed, parents of the bride, entertained at a buffet dinner at their home in Winfall for the out-of-town guests and wedding party.

For her going away attire, Mrs. Sloop chose a brown dress, white accessories and wore the orchid lifted from her corsage. The couple will make their home at 105 N. Railroad Ave.

Miss Anne Winslow Brinn Bride Of William Beverly Tucker, III

The First Methodist Church of Hertford was the setting Saturday afternoon, July 27, 1963, at 4:30 o'clock for the marriage of Miss Anne Winslow Brinn, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Preston Brinn of Front Street, to William Beverly Tucker III, of Hertford. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Reginald Tucker, Sr.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert L. Jerome, Superintendent of Elizabeth City District of N. C. Methodist Conference, assisted by the Rev. Thomas Lee from Chapel Field Road Methodist Church, Norwich, England, who exchanged pupils under the direction of the World Methodist Council, with the Rev. Frederick Still, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Hertford.

Perry and Price Monds lighted the cathedral candles prior to the ceremony. The church was decorated with magnolia, ivy, stock and cathedral candles.

A program of wedding music was softly rendered by the church organist, Miss Caroline Wright. Soloist was Riley S. Monds, Jr., uncle of the bride. Mr. Monds sang The Lord's Prayer at the close of the ceremony.

Dr. Brinn escorted his daughter, who wore a dress of pure silk organza semi-sheath, circle neckline embroidered design around neck and skirt with a detachable train in full court. Her veil was of Brussels Lace. The bride carried a cascade of phalaenopsis orchids and lily of the valley.

Miss Mary Elliott Brinn was her sister's maid of honor. Her dress was of yellow linen, ballerina length with circle neckline, abbreviated sleeves and matching shoes. Her flowers were a cascade of fuji mums.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Preston Winslow of Raleigh, Miss Jerry S. McCombs of Salisbury and Miss Mary Ann Johnson of Elkin. They wore dresses of yellow linen and carried cascades of pale green fuji mums.

The bridegroom's father, Geo. Reginald Tucker, Sr., served as best man. Groomsman were Dr. George Reginald Tucker, Jr., from Henderson, brother of the bridegroom, Walton Avery of Winston-Salem, Tom Ellis of Shelby, Jake Lohr of Lexington and Charles Whedbee of Hertford. The bride's mother was attired in a powder blue cocktail suit, her flowers were a corsage of yellow throated orchids.

The bridegroom's mother wore a dusty pink embroidered organdy dress with a pink cymbidium corsage.

After September 1 the Tuckers will make their home in Carboro, N. C. Mrs. Tucker attended Perquimans County High School and received her diploma from St. Mary's Junior College, and was also graduated from Marjorie Webster Junior College, Washington, D. C., and the University of North Carolina, where she received a bachelors degree in elementary education. She will teach in the Orange County Schools. The bridegroom is a graduate of Perquimans County High School. He will begin his second year at the medical school of the University of North Carolina in September.

Following the wedding ceremony, Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Preston Brinn entertained at a reception at their home on Perquimans River shore. Assisting were Mr. and Mrs. Claude Brinn, Mrs. Robert Brinn, Mrs. William Drake, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brinn and Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Hooks.

The couple left for a wedding trip to unannounced points of interest following the reception.

PRE-NUPTIAL PARTIES

Several parties were held last week honoring Miss Anne Brinn who was wed to Beverly Tucker III, on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Monds, Jr., entertained the couple, the wedding party and out-of-town guests at a pre-rehearsal dinner at their home on Front Street.

The dining table was covered with a white lace cloth centered with white wedding bells and magnolia leaves. Summer cut flowers were used throughout the lower floor. There were 37 guests present.

Miss Mabel Whedbee and Charles Whedbee were hostesses at a party following the rehearsal on Friday night at their home on Front Street for the couple and their guests. Summer cut flowers were arranged throughout the lower floor of the home. Punch, cookies, nuts and mints were served.

The couple was honored Sat-
