

Son Banquet Observed By Ruritans

The Ruritans observed their annual Banquet and Son Night at their dining hall on Monday night. The banquet was a very interesting and informative program was presented. Cpl. Meigs of the State Highway Patrol, explained the rules of safety and showed slides on safety. The entire group enjoyed the program. Later Copeland had as his guests watermelon buyers from Maine. They expressed pleasure in attending a local meeting. The Ruritans were invited to attend church services, in a group at Ballard's Bridge Church during revival September 5 at 8 o'clock. About 60 attended the meeting and enjoyed a fried chicken dinner.

CARLTON COPPELAND AWARDED DEGREE

Shannon addressed the graduates briefly. The Rev. Charles A. Perry, associate rector of St. Paul's Memorial Church and chaplain to Episcopal students at the University, gave the invocation and benediction. The College of Arts and Sciences presented 40 bachelor's degrees; the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, 32 master's degrees; the School of Engineering and Applied Science, nine master's degrees and six bachelor's degrees; the School of Law, four bachelor's degrees; and the School of Nursing, one bachelor's degree.

Whiteville Grove Baptist Church Setting For Fowler-Rogerson Vows Sunday Afternoon

Miss Carolyn Faye Rogerson of Belvidere and Charles Edward Fowler of Hertford exchanged vows in a double ring ceremony on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Whiteville Grove Baptist Church. The Rev. Joseph Buck, pastor of the church, officiated. The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Rogerson, Jr. of Belvidere. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. (Bill) Fowler of Hertford. A program of wedding music was softly rendered by Miss Ann White. Soloist was Mrs. Shelby

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original gown, designed by her mother, of bridal satin with scallop neckline of hand sewn re-embroidered Miss America Ban-Lon lace, fitted bodice with long tapered sleeves ending in wedding points over the hands. The dramatic redingote effect on the skirt, with additional lace touches extended into a chapel length-train. Her veil of French illusion fell from a tiara of pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses.

Miss Eva Ann Smith of Winfall was maid of honor. She wore a gown of ice blue satin, fashioned with scooped neckline, fitted bodice and draped sheath skirt. Her head piece was an ice blue bow and matching veil. And she carried a single long stem white rose.

Bridesmaids were Miss Anna Daniels of Richmond, Va., Miss Virginia Fowler, sister of the bridegroom of Hertford and Miss Kaye Ward, cousin of the bride, of Hobbsville. Their dresses were fashioned like that of the honor attendant and they carried a single stem white rose. Flower girl was little Rena Hobbs of Elizabeth City. She wore a white organdy dress accented with ice blue trim, as she dropped rose petals in the bride's path. Ring bearer was Michael Copeland of Great Bridge, Va.

The bridegroom's father served as best man. Ushers were Vernon Winslow of Hertford, Ray Smith of Hertford and Sammie Bush of Portsmouth. The bride's mother was attired in a rose Alecon lace dress with matching accessories and a pink carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua organza lace dress with matching accessories and a pink carnation corsage. The mistress of ceremony was Mrs. Lanier White.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. For a wedding trip to announced points the bride wore a green linen sheath dress with white accessories and a corsage of white roses.

The bride is a graduate of Perquimans High School and attended Pan American Business School in Richmond, Va., and is presently employed by Liberty Loan Corporation in Elizabeth City. The bridegroom is a graduate of Perquimans High School and is employed with the State Highway Commission in Elizabeth City.

The couple will make their home in Hertford.

Pre-Nuptial Parties
Several parties were held last week honoring Carolyn Faye Rogerson.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Chappell, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Ward, Jr., and Miss Kaye Ward entertained the couple, the wedding party and out of town guests at a rehearsal party at the home of Mrs. Curtis Chappell. The serving table was covered with a lace cloth and an arrangement of pink roses, snaps and baby breath was used as the centerpiece. Miss Lucy V. Lamb and Mrs. Archie Bacous served the cake. Mrs. A. D. Ward, Jr., and Mrs. Charlie Rogerson, Sr., poured the punch.

Mr. and Mrs. Carson Spivey entertained the couple with a cook-out and supper at their home in Durants Neck.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Copeland entertained Miss Carolyn Faye Rogerson and Charlie Fowler at a steak cook-out at their home in Great Bridge, Va., and the Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Buck also had the couple for a steak cook-out at their home in Gates. Mrs. Carlton Copeland, Mrs. L. C. Elliott, Mrs. John Winslow, Mrs. Louis Winslow, Mrs. Lanier White and Miss Eva Ann Smith were hostesses at a floating shower honoring Miss Carolyn Faye Rogerson.

Shower Held For Carolyn Rogerson

On July 26th from 8 to 10 P. M. Mrs. Lois Faye White, Mrs. Sylvia Wras Copeland, Mrs. Shirley Elliott, Miss Eva Ann Smith, Mrs. Azalea Winslow and Mrs. Ethel Winslow were joint hostesses at a floating miscellaneous shower at the Belvidere Community House, honoring Miss Carolyn Faye Rogerson, bride-elect of Charlie Fowler.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. Lois Faye White and were entertained by Mrs. Azalea Winslow. The serving table was covered with a lace cloth over green, centered by an arrangement of summer flowers, flanked by silver candelabra holding lighted tapers. Mrs. Shirley Elliott presided at the punch bowl, Mrs. Ethel

Winslow cut the cake, mints and displaying bar gifts. nuts and cookies were also served, which carried out the color scheme of green and white. Mrs. Sylvia Wras Copeland and Miss Eva Ann Smith assisted the bride-elect in opening. Approximately 150 guests attended or sent gifts. A man has generally the good or ill qualities which he ascribes to mankind. —William Shakespeare.
